Breaking Story:

Broadcast News Producing Brad Schultz, 2005 Broadcast News Producing is one of the first comprehensive texts in its field. While until now most broadcast journalism textbooks have been geared toward students who want careers on camera, Broadcast News Producing goes behind the camera to teach students the hows and whys of putting together compelling news programs for television, radio, and the Internet. This text lays the groundwork for good producing, giving the reader an insider's perspective on newsroom structure and the producer's role. It takes students step by step through the producing process, providing a guide to putting together a successful newscast. Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States National Labor Relations Board, 2015-08

Multimedia Sports Journalism Edward Kian, Brad Schultz, Galen Clavio, Mary Lou Sheffer, 2019 Multimedia Sports Journalism: A Practitioner's Guide for the Digital Age is the first textbook and practitioner guide covering all the major fields of multimedia sports journalism in the Internet era, including online sports journalism and the most impactful methods for using social media. This author team has collectively worked in and studied every major realm of sports journalism; their unique collaboration combines unprecedented experience, expertise, and industry contacts and know-how. Morning Sunshine! Robin Meade, 2009-08-25 Robin Meade is the poster child for confidence and self-assurance. But the anchor of Morning Express with Robin Meade wasn't always that way. In fact, there was a period in her career when she was plagued with anxiety and panic attacks. In MORNING SUNSHINE she tells how she overcame her fear of public speaking to go on and achieve her dream of becoming a news anchor. Robin Meade offers her own tried and true four-step approach to building confidence. Her trademark warm personal style translates from the screen to the page in this book, which will give readers even more insight into the young woman who came out of nowhere to become one of the most popular news anchors on television today. Essential Reporting Jon Smith, Joanne Butcher, 2007-09-18 If you want a book that instructs you about all the technical skills you need to pass the examinations set by the National Council for the Training of Journalists (NCTJ) and embark on a career in journalism, then this is the book for you. It outlines the basic knowledge required to succeed as a trainee reporter: shorthand, intros, writing styles, subbing, layout, the way newsrooms work, and how to find things out are among the range of skills described. Times Higher Education. Precisely what it says on the cover: a down-to-earth essential handbook for anyone embarking on a career in journalism. All you need to know about avoiding newsroom minefields and attracting the editor's attention for the right reasons. If only it had been around in my day. Bob Satchwell, Executive Director, Society of Editors. This is a book for everyone who wants to be a journalist: a practical guide to all you need to know, learn, and do to succeed as a trainee reporter in today's newsroom. Although the world of journalism is changing fast as technology blurs the boundaries between newspapers, radio, television, and web-based media, the reporter's core role remains the same: to recognize news, communicate with people, gather information, and create accurate, balanced, and readable stories. Essential Reporting, written by an experienced NCTJ examiner.

explains how to do this Contents include what makes a good reporter what is news and how to find it how newsrooms work day to day life as a reporter key reporting tasks covering courts and councils successful interviewing writing news stories specialist reporting handling sound pictures and the web It also contains a wealth of advice tips and warnings from working journalists a guide to NCTJ training and examinations a glossary and a guide to further reading It will be invaluable to anyone embarking on a career in journalism and is the NCTJ s recommended introductory text for all students on college and university courses preparing them to become successful reporters The Academy ,1880 Byline Cristi

Hegranes,2023-09-19 Journalism is in crisis but the solution is right in front of us It s no secret that news outlets are struggling to maintain their audience and journalism jobs are being cut to accommodate tighter and tighter budgets all while the public regularly falls prey to fake news Today news consumers have lost trust in journalism They sense rightly they aren t getting the whole story By reimagining a model for international journalism Cristi Hegranes has proven we can reverse this trend by changing who tells our stories Local reporters with proximity to events and access to diverse sources tell fuller more accurate stories the sort of news consumers have been demanding for years Featuring original interviews with some of the biggest names in journalism including Nicholas Kristof Carroll Bogert Bobby Ghosh Lauren Williams and Global Press reporters across the planet Byline makes a bold case that international coverage led by local journalists can restore trust in the entire industry To enact this solution the industry will have to let go of many outdated assumptions about what news people want who has a right to tell their story and just what security means in the new era of journalism Essential Radio
