Daniel To Paul:

Another Place DC Moore, 2015-01-15 It's forty million miles Two and a half years yeah It takes a radiowave right Travelling at the speed of fucking light 13 minutes to get back from Mars So if anything goes wrong anything at all out there they're really they're on their own you know When Earth is the loneliest planet where else is there to go Paul is a specialist in cognitive behaviour tasked with designing a twenty year mission to Mars Daniel is a husband and new father struggling with the reality of marriage and the monotony of everyday life Nat is a twin sister disillusioned by the world's obsession with space travel and sorry that she didn't say goodbye And Amy asks a lot of questions Following his critically acclaimed The Empire at the Royal Court and The Swan at the National Theatre DC Moore's Another Place is a compelling play about our obsession to uncover the secrets of space and the tragedy of what we leave behind Full of dark humour razor sharp wit and intricately portrayed characters this is a gripping play about what it means to be human Another Place received its world premiere at the Theatre Royal Plymouth on 6 November 2014 Jesus Have I Loved, But Paul? J. Register of Deeds, 1892 Debates and Issues in Feminist Research and Pedagogy Janet Holland, Maud Blair, Sue Sheldon, 1995 The articles in this book engage with practical issues relating to teaching and research The way in which gender and education is theorized is currently in a period of profound change and this presents a major challenge to feminist teachers who want to translate explanations for gender relations into transformative action in the classroom Several of the authors in this collection consider the possibilities and practicalities of transformative feminist pedagogies identifying the pedagogic moments into which challenge and change can be introduced without distorting or denying the students' experience Another section contains articles which present the results of classroom research dealing with issues of class gender race and sexuality We can see from the results of these recent studies that class race and gender continue to position students differently throughout the whole school and the entire curriculum Research on teacher education reported here indicates that gender differences are produced and reproduced in that context A final section of the book deals with the ongoing and lively debate on feminist methodology and epistemology indicating the variety of approaches and positions that are being taken up in this area Report of the Minnesota State Horticultural
