Fruteros Rocío Rosales,2020-05-19 This book examines the social worlds of young Latino street vendors as they navigate the complexities of local and federal laws prohibiting both their presence and their work on street corners Known as fruteros they sell fruit salads out of pushcarts throughout Los Angeles and are part of the urban landscape Drawing on six years of fieldwork Roc o Rosales offers a compelling portrait of their day to day struggles In the process she examines how their paisano hometown compatriot social networks both help and exploit them Much of the work on newly arrived Latino immigrants focuses on the ways in which their social networks allow them to survive Rosales argues that this understanding of ethnic community simplifies the complicated ways in which social networks and social capital work Fruteros sheds light on those complexities and offers the concept of the ethnic cage to explain both the promise and pain of community
