Breaking Windows:

Broken Windows, Broken Business Michael Levine, 2021-05-11 Now revised and updated this inspired impactful and important book shows how to achieve the ultimate success by rectifying the small problems that can sink a business Stephen R Covey author of The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People Once every few years a book comes along with an insight so penetrating so powerful and so simply demonstrably true that it instantly changes the way we think and do business Such a book is Broken Windows Broken Business a breakthrough in management theory that can alter the destiny of countless companies striving to stay ahead of their competition In this vital work author Michael Levine offers compelling evidence that problems in business large and small typically stem from inattention to tiny details Social psychologists and criminologists agree that if a window in a building is broken and left unrepaired soon thereafter the rest of the windows will be broken and the perception will build that crime in that neighborhood is out of control The same principle applies to business Drawing on real world corporate examples from JetBlue s decision to give fliers what they really want leather seats personal televisions online ticketing to Google s customer based strategy for breaking out of the pack of Internet search engines to business to business firms successes and failures Levine proves again and again how constant vigilance and an obsession with detail can make or break a business or a brand With tips and advice on changing any business to one that dots its i s crosses its t s and attracts more clients Broken Windows Broken Business goes straight to the heart of what makes all enterprises successful the little things that mean a lot

"Women and Things, 1750-1950" Maureen Daly Goggin, 2017-07-05 In contrast to much current scholarship on women and material culture which focuses primarily on women as consumers this essay collection provides case studies of women who produced material objects The essays collected here make an original contribution to material culture studies by focusing on women s social practices in relation to material culture The essays as a whole are concerned with women s complex and active engagement with material culture in the various stages of the material object s life cycle from design and production to consumption use and redeployment Also theorized and described are the ways in which women engaged in meaning making identity formation and commemoration through their manipulation of materials and techniques ranging from taxidermy and shell work to collecting autographs and making scrapbooks This volume takes as its object of investigation the overlooked and often despised categories of women s decorative and craft activities as sites of important cultural and social work This volume is interdisciplinary with essays by art historians social historians literary critics rhetoricians and museum curators The scope of the volume is international with essays on eighteenth century German silhouettes Australian aboriginal ritual practices Brittany mourning rites and Soviet era recipes that provide a comparative framework for the majority of essays which focus on British and North American women who lived and worked in the long nineteenth century This volume will appeal to a broad range of students and scholars in women s history art history cultural studies museum studies anthropology cultural and social history literature rhetoric and material culture studies
