The Bride of Messina George Irvine, 2015-06-25

Excerpt from The Bride of Messina. A Tragedy From the German of F. V. Schiller. I am told and I believed with truth that no one now reads poetry, perhaps my Translation of this acknowledged masterpiece of one of the most celebrated German Authors may so little deserve that appellation as to be exempted from the general proscription. Under whatever designation it may be received I submit it with deep humility to the public. It is some excuse to myself that to the best of my very moderate ability I have rendered that homage to the literature of Germany which that great nation has paid to our own.
