subject her own teddy bear George Her older cousin had kidnapped George from some girl and gave him to her George had no eyes and one ear was torn half off There s lots of wear and tear in teddy bear s life Marygrace loved George He was old and experienced in raising children Nevertheless George gave her years of joy He was faithful and the best secret keeper she has ever known When her dad moved their family to the West Coast George remained in New York with so many childhood memories She was seventeen Many would say that she was too old for a teddy bear In some ways that may have been true for the seasons of our lives change However when she looks back into her memories George is always there He keeps all those memories in a safe place where they remain unchanged by time To this day she has never seen a bear that looks like George Marygrace would never have guessed that her love of stuffed furry bears would bring her to write this poem for her dear granddaughter Together Hannah the Dancing Bear and Marygrace will have this happy warm and fuzzy memory to share through the years and they invite all other children to join them After you enjoy this poem you may want to make your own special memories with your own bear bunny or other toy

Plays 4 Children Blanche Marvin,1990 Dancing Bear Peter Dickinson,1988-01 Following a raid by the Huns the slave Silvester his dancing bear Bubba and Holy John attempt to find Lady Ariadne Heart of the Bison Glen R. Stott,2002-08-13 As the lambent light from the slumbering fire dances across the roof of the cave a young girl wakes from a dream Kec s dream tells her that her clan is in jeopardy and that Mother Earth expects her to do something to save her people A magic child will be sent to help her Far away Strong Branch a powerful Shaman of his people has his own dream The Great Spirit sends him a warning about a future of conflict and killing Kec s people are very simple but they are strong and powerful enough to have survived the ice ages of Pleistocene Europe by force for over one hundred thousand years Strong Branch s people are late comers from an alien world far to the South They bring an advanced technology that allows them to utilize the environment in ways Kec s people never could As the population of the aliens has grown over a period of more than twenty thousand years the stress on the environment has become critical Kec and Strong Branch must play their parts in a microcosm of the greater struggle for survival The conclusion of their struggle will establish a new story and a new history for each of their peoples
