

“If the smartest people are right in the streets, we are taking them, we are attacking for advertisements that do not objectively measure, we’re destroying the commercial mechanisms that objectively measure, we are not appealing to make money for us and to rape, but threatening: “If you touch me, I will fucking kill you.”

For us, the mechanisms that create and maintain identities of community were refused, and our desires were our own, our bodies were our own, and our statement was our own.
