House of Commons, 1881 Michigan High School Debating League Michigan High School Debating League, 1920 The Immigration Debate John Isbister, 1996 Attempts to debunk some of the myths surrounding immigrants and their place in the work force arguing that their advantage lies in their work ethic Official Report of Debates, House of Commons Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, 1907 Official Reports of the Debates of the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada Canada. Parliament. House of Commons, 1927 Fractured Transitions from School to Work Julian Tanner, H. Krahn, Timothy F. Hartnagel, 1995 Why do so many high school students drop out and what are the consequences for the students their families and society in general This work discusses answers to these questions and examines topics dealing with the issues policies and problems associated with leaving school early It looks at the reasons behind the decision to drop out the labor market difficulties that dropouts face the psychological experience of unemployment the relationship between dropouts and various kinds of deviance and the dropouts own expectations about their futures Canadian Periodical Index, 1997 Learning to Leave Michael John Corbett, 2007 It has been argued that if education is to be democratic and serve the purpose of social and cultural elevation then it must be generic and transcend the specificity of the locale This work shows that continuing rates of high school drop out among youth in rural and coastal communities among young men illustrates the failure of this approach

Pregnant with Meaning Deirdre M. Kelly, 2000 How and why have teen mothers become scapegoats for social anxieties How do schools respond to these stigmatized students in their midst And in those rare schools attempting to form more inclusive settings for teen mothers what helps or hinders success These issues are explored in Pregnant with Meaning which links an ethnographic study of two schools to the wider North American political and economic context Mindful of myriad shifting power relations within the research setting Deirdre M Kelly scrutinizes her own practices as a participant observer and contributes new knowledge in the areas of sexuality education detracking curriculum and the politics of representation

Against the prevailing neoliberal moral conservative consensus she develops a critical feminist argument for integrating teen mothers and rethinking school and classroom practices

Youth Culture and Sport Michael D. Giardina, Michele K. Donnelly, 2008 Youth Culture and Sport critically interrogates and challenges contemporary articulations of race class gender and sexual relations circulating throughout popular iterations of youth sporting culture in late capitalism Written against the backdrop of important changes in social cultural political and economic dynamics taking place in corporate culture s war on kids this exciting new volume marks the first anthology to critically examine the intersection of youth culture and sport in an age of global uncertainty Bringing together leading scholars from cultural studies gender studies sociology sport studies and related fields chapters range in scope from action sport subcultures and community redevelopment programs to the cultural politics of white masculinity and Nike advertising It is a must read for anyone interested in gaining a better understanding of the role sport plays in the construction of experiences identities practices and social differences of contemporary youth culture
