Cornwall John Betjeman,1964      Cornwall John Betjeman,1965      Cornwall John Betjeman,1969      A Shell Guide to Cornwall John Betjeman,1965      Shell Guide: Cornwall Illustrated, in a series of views, of castles, seats of the nobility, mines, picturesque scenery ,1934      A Shell Guide to Cornwall Illustrated John Betjeman,1939      The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07

More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries      Architecture, Travellers and Writers Anne

Hultsch,2017-07-05 Does the way in which buildings are looked at and made sense of change over the course of time How can we find out about this By looking at a selection of travel writings spanning four centuries Anne Hultsch suggests that it is language the description of architecture which offers answers to such questions The words authors use to transcribe what they see for the reader to re imagine offer glimpses at modes of perception specific to one moment place and person Hultsch constructs an intriguing patchwork of local and often fragmentary narratives discussing texts as diverse as the 17th century diary of John Evelyn Daniel Defoe s Robinson Crusoe 1719 and an 1855 art guide by Swiss art historian Jacob Burckhardt Further authors considered include 17th century collector John Bargrave 18th century novelist Tobias Smollett poet Johann Wolfgang von Goethe critic John Ruskin as well as the 20th century architectural historian Nikolaus Pevsner Anne Hultsch teaches at the Bartlett School of Architecture University College London      John Betjeman Greg

Morse,2012 John Betjeman was undoubtedly the most popular Poet Laureate since Tennyson But beneath the thoroughly modern window on Britain that he opened during his lifetime lay the influence of his nineteenth century forbears This book explores his identity through such Victorianism via the verse of that period but also its architecture religious faith and more importantly religious doubt It was nevertheless a process which took time In the 1930s Betjeman s work was tinted with modernism and traditionalism He found Victorian buildings funny and wrote much in praise of the Bauhaus style even though his early poetry was peppered with Victorian references This leaning was incorporated into a greater sense of purpose during World War 2 when he transformed himself from precious humorist into propagandist The resulting sense of cohesion grew when the dangers of post war urban redevelopment heightened the need to critique the present via the poetics of the past a mood which continued up to and beyond his gaining the Laureateship in 1972 This duty proved to be a millstone so the official poems are thus explored by the author more fully than hitherto The conclusion of looks back to Betjeman s 1960 verse autobiography Summoned by Bells which is seen as the apogee of his achievement and a snapshot of his identity Included here is the first critical appreciation of the lyrics embodied within the text which are taken as a map of the young poet's literary growth Larkin's 1959 question 'What exactly is Betjeman then' leads to a final appraisal of his originality as evidenced by his glances towards postmodernism feminism and post colonialism The fact is that Betjeman never quite fits in anywhere He is always a square peg in a round hole or a round peg in a square hole often for the sheer enjoyment of so being In a sense his desire to be as non conformist as a Quaker meeting house makes him a radical rather than the reactionary that his interests imply He was a champion of beauty and the British Isles and clearly did much to make us see the worth of our Victorian forebears Greg Morse's book highlights this important facet of his work John Betjeman William S. Peterson, 2006 Sir John Betjeman 1906-1984 Poet Laureate was probably the most widely read English poet of the twentieth century Because of his frequent appearances on radio and television and his fervent devotion to the preservation of England's architectural heritage his face and voice became familiar to millions Few other poets of any century have had such a powerful influence on their contemporaries This bibliography lists and describes all of his known writings including his own books ephemera contributions to periodicals and to books by others lectures and radio and television programmes Other categories such as editorships music settings and dramatic adaptations of his poems recordings and interviews are also included as well as a section devoted to writings about him Manuscripts and drafts of all his works are described in detail This enormous body of material is thoroughly indexed cross referenced and in most cases annotated Now at last the activities of this remarkable man both a poet and a cultural phenomenon can be seen in their full breadth and complexity Sir John Betjeman Margaret L. Stapleton, 1974 Cross Country Peter Ashley, 2011-04-18 In Cross Country photographer and author Peter Ashley unleashes his passion for Blighty He takes us on an enlightening jaunt that encompasses many of England's most loved regions His love of buildings and landscape extends far beyond architecture in picturesque surroundings By combining personal reminiscence and an ear for intriguing anecdote he shows us with wit and sometimes irreverent comment just how richly varied the fabric of England is abandoned Cornish tin mines above tide washed caves Norfolk boat sheds leaning on salt marches Romney Marsh shepherd's houses disappearing behind roadside willows and hedges looked over in Wiltshire Local details are found in both Essex estuaries and Cumbrian sand dunes and long abandoned railway lines are once again pressed into service to take us around his beloved High Leicestershire Ashley never misses the curious and neglected be it a sheep wash in the Cotswolds or a disused petrol pump in Herefordshire He travels deep into the countryside he cares about His wry observations allow us to rediscover and delight in what many of us might previously have deemed familiar territory Pitman's business man's guide [by J.A.
