Changing The River:

Quickly Changing River Meena Alexander, 2008-01-09 Recipient 2008 Guggenheim Fellowship With her strong voice and precise language Meena Alexander has crafted this visceral worldly collection of poems The experience she brings to the reader is sensual in many senses of the word as she invokes bright colors sounds smells and feelings Her use of vivid imagery from the natural world birds lilies horses up against that from the world of humans oppression slavery and violence ties her work to the earth even as she works a few mystical poetic transformations In Alexander's world the songs of a bird can become the voice of a girl in a caf and the red juice of mulberries can be as shocking as blood When she focuses her attention on the cloth of a girl's sari the material of a woman's life or the blood in her veins she speaks to the particular experience of women in the world The women are vividly present sometimes they are hidden or veiled juxtaposed with open gardens in full bloom It is difficult not to come away from Quickly Changing River without a new sense of the power and frailty of being alive
