St. Francis of Assisi

When we think of St. Francis of Assisi, most of us think of golden statues of the saint with birds nesting in his shoulders or of the joyous blessings celebrated in early October. But if we look beyond these common images, we find the compelling and joyful witness of a man whose life was spent in service of Christ and his Gospel. Francis stands as one of the most beloved saints in the Catholic tradition because of his universal love for Christ, which he extended to all people and all of God's creation.

In commemoration of the eight hundredth anniversary of St. Francis' passing into heaven (1228-1229), the artwork in the calendar invites us to reflect upon his love in the life of the Providence (your mother) of Assisi and his deep faith inspiration from the mountains as we strive to put Christ at the center of our lives.

In the central image of the calendar, we see Francis' encounter with Jesus in the Church of San Damiano, where he first heard Christ's call to enter the Gospel. A central image for the entire Providence family, the San Damiano scene invites each of us to hear the Lamb call and to surrender his or her life to Christ, following St. Francis' example.

In the upper left corner, we see Francis recognizing his brother's wealth to embrace a life of poverty. In a world marked by consumption and greed, St. Francis shows us that the way to true joy is to find our treasure in heaven rather than the things of the world.

Continuing in the upper right corner, we see Francis more deeply configuring his life to Christ by embracing Christ in the pain of Holy Sepulcher and his life-changing experience in France. His life embracing a year and his being his place among the lepers outside St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. Like Francis, the light of our Christian lives is nourished by our experiences to and solidarity with those in need.

Following in the lower right, we see Francis preaching to all God's creatures, with birds gathered by Serapheo due to the miracle for which they had with the loss of Christ crucified. He is compelled to share the Good News to every living creature around him. Indeed, Francis' life and preaching reveals God's universal love for all his creation and the reverence with which we should care for it.

Finally, we see images of Francis' legacy manifested in the continued memory and outreach of the Franciscan community in the world today, working as its own servants to others as an essential part of our life of discipleship.

Francis did not intend to start a movement with such lasting impact. He simply wanted to live the Gospel in its complete and holy simplicity.

On the right he said, Francis told his brothers, "I have done what a friar should. May Christ show you what to do."
