The Foundations of American Civilization Max Savelle, 1942      Colonial America Mary Geiter, William Speck, 2017-05-01
Colonial America deals with the development of the American colonies from the first permanent settlement at Jamestown to the independence of the thirteen which became the USA Instead of anticipating the birth of a nation as is too often the case Mary K Geiter and W A Speck treat the history of the colonies as part of the wider history of the British Empire They also include in their discussion those colonies which did not rebel against British rule such as the islands in the West Indies Using this valuable and informative approach to the study of the American colonies Geiter and Speck demonstrate how Britain and America shared a common history for nearly two hundred years      Colonial America James Ciment, 2005 Colonial America An Encyclopedia of Social Political Cultural and Economic History captures it all the people institutions ideas events and the creation of the first three hundred years of American history      Colonial America K. Colonial America, 1607-1776 William R. Nester, 2017-10-11 America's colonial era began and ended dramatically with the founding of the first enduring settlement at Jamestown on May 14 1607 and the Declaration of Independence in Philadelphia on July 4 1776 During those 169 years conflicts were endemic and often overlapping among the colonists between the colonists and the original inhabitants between the colonists and other imperial European peoples and between the colonists and the mother country As conflicts were endemic so too were struggles for power This study reveals the reasons for stages and results of these conflicts The dynamic driving this history are two inseparable transformations as English subjects morphed into American citizens and the core American cultural values morphed from communitarianism and theocracy into individualism and humanism These developments in turn were shaped by the changing ways that the colonists governed made money waged war worshipped thought wrote and loved Extraordinary individuals led that metamorphosis explorers like John Smith and Daniel Boone visionaries like John Winthrop and Thomas Jefferson entrepreneurs like William Phips and John Hancock dissidents like Rogers Williams and Anne Hutchinson warriors like Miles Standish and Benjamin Church free spirits like Thomas Morton and William Byrd and creative writers like Anne Bradstreet and Robert Rogers Then there was that quintessential man of America's Enlightenment Benjamin Franklin And finally George Washington who more than anyone was responsible for winning American independence when and how it happened
