Employment Protection Deregulation and Labor Shares in Advanced Economies Gabriele Ciminelli, Mr. Romain A Duval, Davide Furceri, 2018-08-16 Labor market deregulation intended to boost productivity and employment is one plausible yet little studied driver of the decline in labor shares that took place across most advanced economies since the early 1990s This paper assesses the impact of job protection deregulation in a sample of 26 advanced economies over the period 1970-2015 using a newly constructed dataset of major reforms to employment protection legislation for regular contracts We apply the local projection method to estimate the dynamic response of the labor share to our reform events at both the country and the country industry levels For the latter we employ a differences in differences identification strategy using two identifying assumptions grounded in theory namely that job protection deregulation should have larger negative effects in industries characterized by i a higher natural propensity to adjust the workforce and ii a lower elasticity of substitution between capital and labor We find a statistically significant economically large and robust negative effect of deregulation on the labor share In particular illustrative back of the envelope calculations suggest that job protection deregulation may have contributed about 15 percent to the average labor share decline in advanced economies Together with existing evidence regarding the macroeconomic gains from job protection and other labor market reforms our results also point to the need for policymakers to address efficiency equity trade offs when designing such reforms Beyond Listening Bonnie Goebert, 2002-04-08 Kundenreaktionen sind von gr ter Bedeutung f r alle Marketingprozesse angefangen bei der Werbung bis hin zur Verpackung Deshalb f hren Marketingexperten in Amerika j hrlich f r etwa 1 Milliarde US Dollar ber 150 000 Focus Groups durch um Emotionen Motive und Einstellungen von Kunden und potentiellen Kunden zu einem bestehenden oder geplanten Produktkonzept zu explorieren Beyond Listening befasst sich mit der besonderen Bedeutung von Focus Groups Dabei handelt es sich um moderierte Gruppendiskussionen die mit ausgew hlten Kunden und Endverbrauchern gef hrt werden Marketing und Werbeprofis lernen hier wie man Focus Groups einsetzt um detaillierte Einblicke in das Kundenverhalten zu gewinnen konkrete Kundenreaktionen aufzudecken Meinungen und Anregungen zu sammeln um so eine bessere Grundlage f r k nftige Entwicklungsentscheidungen zu gewinnen Mit einer F lle von Fallstudien zu verschiedenen Produkten wie z B Altoids
