Country Of Memory:

The Country of Memory Hue-Tam Ho Tai, 2001-10 Hue Tam Ho Tai's masterful collection of essays that explore how the past is being remade in contemporary Vietnam constitutes a welcome addition to the study of the larger problem of engineering memory especially in political cultures where the identity of the nation state is in a considerable state of flux. This book also suggests that the commemorative fever that is sweeping Vietnam is about more than Vietnam's history. It also has a great deal to do with the problems premodern cultures presented to those who promoted the creation of contemporary states. In this regard both Vietnam and this book offer all scholars of nationalism and remembering in the West a fascinating perspective on their own nations. John Bodnar, Chancellors Professor of History at Indiana University from the Foreword.

The Country of Memory Hue-Tam Ho Tai, 2001 The Country of Memory Hue-Tam Ho Tai, 2001 The American experience in the Vietnam War has been the subject of a vast body of scholarly work yet surprisingly little has been written about how the war is remembered by Vietnamese themselves. The Country of Memory fills this gap in the literature by addressing the subject of history memory and commemoration of the Vietnam War in modern day Vietnam. Collective Memory in International Relations Kathrin Bachleitner, 2021 This book traces the influence of collective memory in International Relations through time. It presents an important and novel theoretical framework for the academic discipline of IR and illustrates the theories in a comparative study of two cases: West Germany and Austria after World War II. The Past Is a Foreign Country - Revisited David Lowenthal, 2015-10-01 The past remains essential and inescapable. A quarter century after the publication of his classic account of man's attitudes to his past, David Lowenthal revisits how we celebrate, expunge, contest, and domesticate the past to serve present needs. He shows how nostalgia and heritage now pervade every facet of public and popular culture. History embraces nature and the cosmos as well as humanity. The past is seen and touched and tasted and smelt as well as heard and read about. Empathy, re-enactment, memory, and commemoration overwhelm traditional history. A unified past once certified by experts and reliant on written texts has become a fragmented, contested history forged by us all. New insights into history and memory, bias and objectivity, artefacts and monuments, identity and authenticity, and remorse and contrition make this book once again the essential guide to the past that we inherit, reshape, and bequeath to the future. The History of Our Country from the Discovery of America to the Present Time Edward Sylvester Ellis, 1899 Country Life in America, 1916 Experience and Memory Jörg Echternkamp, Stefan Martens, 2010-12-01 Modern military history inspired by social and cultural historical approaches increasingly puts the national histories of the Second World War to the test. New questions and methods are focusing on aspects of war and violence that have long been neglected. What shaped people's experiences and memories? What differences and what similarities existed in Eastern and Western Europe? How did the political framework influence the individual and the collective interpretations of the war? Finally, what are the benefits of Europeanizing the history of the Second World War?

Experts from Belgium Germany France Great Britain Italy Luxembourg Poland and Russia discuss these and other questions in this comprehensive volume Law and Memory Uladzislau Belavusau,Aleksandra Gliszczyńska-Grabias,2017-10-19 The volume revisits memory laws as a phenomenon of global law transitional justice historical narratives and claims for historical truth It will appeal to those interested in the conflict between legal governance of memory with values of democratic citizenship political pluralism and fundamental rights Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony Froude,John Tulloch,1873 Our Country Benson John Lossing,1905 Country-side ,1908 Science gossip and Country queries and notes are incorporated with this Our Country Churches & Chapels ,1872 Country Life ,1907 Country Teacher ,1925 The Monthly Chronicle of North-country Lore and Legend ,1887 That Unknown Country ,1888 Poems in Memory of the Late Field-Marshal Lord Kitchener, K.G. Charles Frederick Forshaw,1916 Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country ,1880 Shakespeare's Country Bertram Coghill Alan Windle,1900
