Creating On Line Media:

Creating Online Media Carole Rich, 1999 Designed for courses in on line journalism this text emphasizes skill development from Internet searches to writing for on line media to Website design The text encourages the active use of the Internet through an innovative hands on approach Interactivity and the Online Media Sphere in Nigeria Joseph Wilson, 2019-01-15 In today s age of extraordinary technological development the mass media industry must constantly innovate and adopt emerging concepts to keep up with the demand of online visibility and prominence Interactivity is a distinguishing feature of the current online environment and is a necessity in maintaining relevance in digital media sphere The growing impact of new media technologies and the resulting pressure on mass media organizations to incorporate more audience involvement have made interactivity a particularly sought after phenomenon throughout the industry The prominence of online interactivity has resulted in anxiety throughout the mass media industry regarding the ways in which media organisations can engage with their audience and maintain a high level of traffic on their websites Attaining these heights largely depends on the quality and nature of interactivity on a given site This book provides insights into the interactivity basics of an ideal media website and highlights the nature of interactivity in the Nigerian online media sphere vis a vis the basics of interactivity Shaping Online News Performance Edda Humprecht, 2017-05-29 The author offers a comprehensive portrait of online news performance in Western countries in changing media environments Drawing on a content analysis of 48 news outlets from different types of media organization in France Germany Great Britain Italy Switzerland and USA Edda Humprecht investigates the complex interplay of systemic and organizational dynamics and their impact on online news content showing that the performance of online news media strongly varies among different media outlets Less profit oriented outlets and those with a focus on information generally perform well offering hard news diversity critical distance or analytical depth This suggests that the divide between high and low performing outlets is tied to the news outlet s capacity and willingness to strike a balance between their profit orientation and their normative role as information providers Furthermore the findings demonstrate that different dimensions of news performance are more pronounced in certain countries This book provides new theoretical perspectives and methods for political and media scholars and insights for journalists policymakers and concerned citizens Routledge Handbook of Conflict Response and Leadership in Africa Alpaslan Özerdem, Sinem Akgül-Açıkmeşe, Ian Liebenberg, 2021-09-14 This handbook explores the challenges and opportunities for leadership and conflict response in the context of Africa at several levels Leadership plays a vital role in affecting conflict response but is frequently only examined at the macro level of state government and international organizations This handbook addresses the need to explore challenges and opportunities for leadership at several levels macro global regional national meso NGOs religious groups academics and micro civil society organizations youth groups women s organizations Analysis from multiple levels provides a broader explanation of conflict dynamics and helps to fit

localized conflict transformation approaches into wider national or regional structures The multidisciplinary essays presented in this volume encompass the psychological political and structural dimensions of conflict response and demonstrate how its success is fundamentally linked to the style of effectiveness of leadership among other factors The volume is divided into four thematic sections Part I The theory and dynamics of conflict response and leadership Part II Macro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part III Meso micro level leadership experiences in conflict response Part IV Recommendations for improved leadership in conflict response This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies African politics security studies and international relations in general

Africa 2.0 Russell Southwood, 2022-07-12 Africa wired up provides an important history of how two technologies mobile calling and internet were made available to millions of Sub Saharan Africans and the impact they have had on their lives The book deals with the political challenges of liberalization and privatization that needed to be in place to get these technologies built It analyses how the mobile phone fundamentally changed communications in Sub Saharan Africa and the ways Africans have made these technologies part of their lives It examines critically the technologies impact on development practices and the key role development actors played in accelerating things like regulatory reform fibre roll out and mobile money The book considers how corruption in the industry is a prism through which patronage relationships in Government can be understood The arrival of a start up ecosystem has the potential to break these relationships and offer a new wave of investment opportunities The author seeks to go beyond the hype to make a provisional assessment of the kinds of changes that have happened over three decades It examines how and why these technologies became transformative and seem to have opened out a very different future for Sub Saharan Africa
