Developing Faith Mentor Handbook

J. Robert Clinton, Richard W. Clinton

Developing Faith Mentor Handbook:

Developing Faith Michael Amodei, 1996-02 The Developing Faith series is designed to fit comfortably into many different programming schedules. A mini course includes eight sessions each approximately 150 minutes in length. The sessions are clearly labeled in parts and movements that allow for much freedom to adapt the mini courses to many time frames, settings, and existing calendars or to use the mini courses in ways that best meet the needs of your course or program. The Developing Faith series offers mini courses on faith themes that respond to the developmental needs of adolescents as recommended by diocesan catechetical leaders throughout the country. Developing Faith has been designed for use in settings that may include a wide age range of adolescents. Multiple suggestions within each session allow for easy adaptation of each mini course for focus among exclusive groups of younger or older adolescents. In part or whole, the sessions can be used for youth group meetings, religion classes, retreats, days of recollection, peer ministry meetings, small faith community gatherings, and so forth. Used in any of these ways, the Developing Faith series contributes to and is indeed a foundation for an expansive and engaging faith development program. The Developing Faith series is designed to help adolescent Christians to develop the seeds of faith that were given to them at baptism. Coming to accept the faith includes three distinct but interrelated processes: developing one's individual relationship with God, developing one's sense of belonging in a Christian community, and developing one's understanding of and allegiance to the institutional church. Developing Faith encourages adult participation and makes it easy for adults to get involved. Adults from the parish community participate in a variety of roles including catechists, group moderators, mentors, guests at one or more sessions, and prayer partners. This is a special way that adults are involved. The mentor is a spiritual Karcher, along with leading experts in the field, offer critical and informative analyses of the full spectrum of topics that are essential to advancing our understanding of the principles for effective mentoring of young people. The Handbook explores not only mentoring that occurs within formal programs such as Big Brothers Big Sisters but also examines natural mentoring relationships that youth establish with adults outside of such programs.

Making Disciples: Coordinator's Guide William H. Willimon, 2018-06-19 Making Disciples is a 13-session mentor based confirmation program that pairs confirmands with adult mentors and guides them through a variety of learning experiences that will strengthen the student's understanding of the faith while connecting him or her with the community of believers in a personal way. It can be used as a stand-alone program or in conjunction with your current curriculum as a special experiential unit. This is a confirmation program that is more like a process and less like a reading assignment, more engaging and congruent with the nature of the Christian faith than existing programs. Using an apprenticeship approach to confirmation, Will Willimon produced a series of learning experiences where adult mentors and confirmands are both teachers and learners at the same time. This time-tested approach has been extensively revised and updated for usage in today's churches that take seriously Christ's command to be engaged in disciple-making. The Coordinator's Guide can be used by the pastor if that is how your congregation chooses to oversee and support the process of confirmation. However, it's good to involve as many laypersons as possible in mentoring and guiding. This Coordinator's Guide is designed to be easily used by a lay coordinator to support the mentors as they guide their confirmands through the journey toward confirmation. Topics explore the basics of Christian faith: God, Jesus, the Holy Spirit, worship, the Bible, gifts, ministry, baptism, spiritual life, death, and resurrection, the church.

The initial act of stepping out in faith can be difficult, but it doesn't have to be intimidating. Why not start with some fundamental spiritual practices? Just like with family, friends, or your significant other, the investment of time and effort in your walk with Christ is an important aspect of growing and deepening the relationship. But how can men make simple yet effective strides in their faith? Join author Vince Miller as he guides men on how to use practices like memorizing and meditating on Scripture, how to study the Bible, the power of prayer, journaling, and quiet time in solitude to advance and strengthen their relationship with the Lord.
