monograph is the effort to improve the activities of coffee producers by analysing and eliminating the discrepancy between the marketing strategies used and the real needs and preferences of consumers. The monograph is based on primary and secondary data obtained as a result of surveys of consumers and participants of the supply side of the coffee market. The conclusions presented in the monograph are drawn from the analysis of documents of twenty six coffee producers, individual in depth interviews with managers, a case study of the company MOKATE sp z o o the leader of the Polish instant cappuccino market and from direct interviews with 800 coffee consumers. The Polish coffee market is one of the largest markets of this kind in Europe and it has great potential for growth. Therefore this publication is not only a valuable contribution to research on behaviour of market entities but also an important source of inspiration for managers responsible for everyday marketing in FMCG markets in particular in coffee markets.

Prof Roman E Niestr j Professor of Marketing WSB University Poland. This book describes possible marketing strategies with focus on the coffee sector. The history of marketing is presented from the first attempts at a scientific approach in 1926 up to the establishment of this term in science in the 1950s. The authors refer to various definitions of marketing and describe its strategy variants: defensive, active. The main element and advantage of the book is the presentation of various methods of implementation and equally important their control. This content is supplemented by tables and figures concerning production, consumption and prices in the coffee market. In general the book has a significant practical value as it shows enterprises not only from the coffee sector how to effectively implement marketing strategies.
