Re-theorising the Recognition of Prior Learning National Institute of Adult Continuing Education (England and Wales),2006 The recognition of prior learning RPL is an educational response to the need to widen participation in education and training for economic advancement and social inclusion The social meanings of RPL have different configurations depending on historical cultural economic and political forces in different places One constant is the reliance on the widely pervasive educational philosophies of experiential learning constructivism and progressivism This book challenges the orthodoxy of experiential learning and the particular readings of knowledge pedagogy learning identity and power which it privileges It does this by introducing different theoretical resources to RPL and drawing on experiences of RPL in the UK the USA Canada South Africa Australia and Sweden The book provides a range of re conceptualisations of the relational terrain between adult experience and learning on the one hand and specialist or academic knowledge on the other Educational Leadership and Administration Fenwick W. English, 2009
