Encyclopedia of Recorded Sound in the United States Guy A. Marco, Frank Andrews, 1993 This alphabetical reference covers the entire spectrum of the recording of sound from Edison's experimental cylinders to contemporary high technology. The major focus is on the recorded sound industry in the US with additional material on Canada, Europe, Australia, and New Zealand. The coverage is particularly strong on the earliest periods of recorded sound history: 1877-1948, the 78 rpm era, and 1949-1982, the LP era. In addition to performers and their work, entries also cover important commercial organizations, individuals who made significant technical contributions, societies and associations, sound archives and libraries, magazines, catalogs, award winners, technical topics, special and foreign terms, copyright laws, and other areas of interest. Janes, Katherine R. Tromble, 1995 A survey of Washington D C area collections, organizations, and agencies. This Scholars Guide describes scholarly resources for peace studies and international security studies. Among other topics, coverage includes disarmament, environmental issues, international law, military history, and peace theory and research. Four hundred twenty-one institutions are covered out of more than 750 surveyed in the course of the project. Collections include libraries, archives, art and museum collections, map recording, photo and film collections, and data banks. Organizations include research centers, information offices, university programs, government agencies, and associations. For each, directory information is given along with a description of relevant resources and activities in terms of size, content, and organization of collections, programs, and products published and unpublished, classified and unclassified.

Scholars Guide to Washington D C for Peace and International Security Studies is the fifteenth in the series of Scholars Guides edited by Zdenek V. David, librarian at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in Washington D C. It was prepared in collaboration with the United States Institute of Peace.
