The Colonial Image John C. Miller, 1962 Art and Exoticism Paul van der Grijp, 2009 This book is about the yearning for authenticity via art and exoticism Exoticism related to art cannot be reduced to primitivism alone and also encompasses a search in one's own unconsciousness among other things The yearning for authenticity through exoticism is explored in a cultural anthropological perspective in the realms of Western philosophy capita selecta and colonial literature currents of art and in the appreciation of Western art conceptions in non Western societies An array of firsthand ethnographic illustrations of art production in Asian and Pacific societies demonstrates complementary processes in the non Western world A major hypothesis is that exoticism is closely related to and often motivated by eroticism a reason why exoticism should be considered as gendered Case studies of the falsification of authentic art the de sacralization of sacred objects and of the use of natural materials deriving from endangered species complete the analysis The colonial image origins of America John Chester Miller (1907- ed), Syed Hussein Alatas and Critical Social Theory ,2022-11-21 Known for his most famous works such as The Myth of the Lazy Native 1977 and The Problem of Corruption 1986 as well as his concept of the captive mind Syed Hussein Alatas 1928 2007 has made significant contributions to decolonization theory social theory and other forms of thought critical of the current neo colonial and neoliberal world Although Edward Said acknowledged his debt to Syed Hussein Alatas work especially its influence on Edward W Said's most famous book Orientalism Syed Hussein Alatas work has long been overlooked by Western academia trapped in its Eurocentric perspective Spurred by the commitment to continue the development of Syed Hussein Alatas work this edited volume attempts to demonstrate the relevance of Syed Hussein Alatas to numerous academic fields and the potential for his thought to be transformative in the international socio political realm Twenty authors from various disciplines and countries have contributed to Syed Hussein Alatas and Critical Social Theory Decolonizing the Captive Mind in the hopes of bringing his work to the forefront of social and political theory Contributors are Mona Abaza Joseph Alagha Masturah Alatas Sharifah Munirah Alatas Syed Farid Alatas Syed Imad Alatas Hira Amin Dustin J Byrd Zawawi Ibrahim N Jayaram Teo Lee Ken Habibul Haque Khondker Victor T King Jo o Marcelo E Maia Seyed Javad Miri Carimo Mohomed Chandra Muzaffar Norshahril Saat Mostafa Soueid and Esmaeil Zeiny

Architecture as Environmental Media Daniel Jacobs, 2025-12-15 This edited volume explores the agency of environmental media in architectural production As design disciplines confront the changing landscapes and consequences of climate breakdown media for communicating socio environmental relations play an increasingly critical role in defining new narratives for the future of our planet To confront the Anthropocene designers must increasingly move between scales and across disciplines to develop new structures of knowledge and tools of representation from the embodied to the technical the investigative to the projective Ultimately this volume asks What stakes are embedded in contemporary architectural environmental media and how are designers re imagining this media landscape today Chapters in the book explore counter

cartographies of migration and materials forest ecologies and theories of abundance hyperreal visualization and environmental simulation architecture s extractive and colonial systems and pedagogies and practices for environmental futures This book organizes these efforts into three threads of media practice rendering visible rendering sensible and rendering actionable While these categories are inextricably intertwined they represent distinct tactical approaches to media production each exploring possible methods to develop new knowledge systems shift aesthetic regimes and transform collective politics Exploring architecture and design through the lenses of media theory environmental studies visual studies geography and landscape this book will engage students and scholars from a wide range of disciplines

Writing Without Words Elizabeth Hill Boone,Walter Mignolo,1994 The history of writing or so the standard story goes is an ascending process evolving toward the alphabet and finally culminating in the full writing of recorded speech Writing without Words challenges this orthodoxy and with it widespread notions of literacy and dominant views of art and literature history and geography Asking how knowledge was encoded and preserved in Pre Columbian and early colonial Mesoamerican cultures the authors focus on systems of writing that did not strive to represent speech Their work reveals the complicity of ideology in the history of literacy and offers new insight into the history of writing The contributors who include art historians anthropologists and literary theorists examine the ways in which ancient Mesoamerican and Andean peoples conveyed meaning through hieroglyphic pictorial and coded systems systems inseparable from the ideologies they were developed to serve We see then how these systems changed with the European invasion and how uniquely colonial writing systems came to embody the post conquest American ideologies The authors also explore the role of these early systems in religious discourse and their relation to later colonial writing Bringing the insights from Mesoamerica and the Andes to bear on a fundamental exchange among art history literary theory semiotics and anthropology the volume reveals the power contained in the medium of writing Contributors Elizabeth Hill Boone Tom Cummins Stephen Houston Mark B King Dana Leibsohn Walter D Mignolo John Monaghan John M D Pohl Joanne Rappaport Peter van der Loo

Introduction to Political Psychology Martha L. Cottam,Elena Mastors,Thomas Preston,Beth Dietz,2004-04-26 The first comprehensive textbook on political psychology this user friendly volume explores the psychological origins of political behavior Using psychological concepts to explain types of political behavior the authors introduce a broad range of theories and cases of political activity to illustrate the behavior The book examines many patterns of political behaviors including leadership group behavior voting race ethnicity nationalism political extremism terrorism war and genocide Text boxes highlight current and historical events to help students see the connection between the world around them and the concepts they are learning Examples highlight a variety of research methodologies used in the discipline such as experimentation and content analysis The Political Being is used throughout to remind the reader of the psychological theories and concepts to be explored in each chapter Introduction to Political Psychology explores some of the most horrific things people do to one another for political purposes as well as how to prevent and resolve conflict and how to recover from it The goal is to help the reader understand the enormous complexity of human behavior and the significant role political psychology can play in improving the human condition Designed for upper division courses on political psychology or political behavior this volume also contains material of interest to those in the policymaking community Moving Pictures Frederick A Talbot,1912 A Decolonizing Ear Olivia Landry,2022-10-03 The recording of Indigenous voices is one of the most well known methods of colonial ethnography In A Decolonizing Ear Olivia Landry offers a sceptical account of listening as a highly mediated and extractive act influenced by technology and ideology Returning to early ethnographic practices of voice recording and archiving at the turn of the twentieth century with a particular focus on the German paradigm she reveals the entanglement of listening in the logic of Euro American empire and the ways in which contemporary films can destabilize the history of colonial sound reproduction Landry provides close readings of several disparate documentary films from the late 1990s and the early 2000s The book pays attention to technology and knowledge production to examine how these films employ recordings plucked from different colonial sound archives and disrupt their purposes Drawing on film and documentary studies sound studies German studies archival studies postcolonial studies and media history A Decolonizing Ear develops a method of decolonizing listening from the insights provided by the films themselves Blix Frank Norris,1899 The British colonies, The United States (early colonial period) Henry Smith Williams,1904 The Amateur Photographer and Photographic News Charles W.
