Julian Abel, Allan Kellehear

Creating Wellbeing:

Wellbeing, Education and Contemporary Schooling Malcolm Thorburn, 2017-08-08 Wellbeing Education and Contemporary Schooling examines the role of wellbeing in schools and argues that it should be integral to core policy objectives in health and education The whole school focus chosen is conducive to the review of wellbeing in schools and assists in better understanding the complex relationships between learners and teachers in policy contexts where every teacher has a responsibility for learners wellbeing By exploring a range of debates about the nature of wellbeing the book shows how a child s wellbeing is inseparable from their overall capacity to learn and achieve and to become confident self assured and active citizens Drawing on international curriculum developments it considers the ways in which wellbeing could reshape educational aims in areas such as outdoor learning and aesthetic imagination helping to inform programmes of professional learning for teachers Separated into six parts the book covers philosophical perspectives on wellbeing policy perspectives on wellbeing professional perspectives on wellbeing practice perspectives on wellbeing future prospects for wellbeing a personal perspective on wellbeing Examining ways in which wellbeing can become a central component of the ethos culture and environment of contemporary schools Wellbeing Education and Contemporary Schooling is an invaluable guide for all students teachers researchers and policy makers with an interest in learning teaching and children s wellbeing

Reimagining business schools for the 21st century Kenneth McPhail, 2025-11-04 To mark its 60th anniversary Alliance Manchester Business School is publishing a collection of thought provoking essays co authored by eminent AMBS academics and business leaders outlining how business schools can play a significant role in confronting the global challenges of today It also looks at how the School can equip the next generation of business leaders with the skills they need to embrace these challenges and outlines ideas for policy development The blueprint deliberately reaches out to the wider public informing public and political debate on the role of business in both the causes and solutions to the world s biggest challenges and reimagining the role of business in society It also outlines how business and management research cannot just help address grand challenges such as climate change and regional inequalities but also generate economic growth inform policy development and define business thinking
