Desperate Voyage:

Desperate Voyage John Caldwell, 2020-06-01 In May 1946 John Caldwell set out to sail from Panama to Sydney to reunite with his wife who he hadn't seen for more than a year. Eager to reach his destination and unable to secure any other form of transport, he had to resort to singlehanded seamanship. After an ignominious scene in the harbor where a tangled anchor led him to take an early dip, he spent ten days learning the rudiments of navigation and sailing from a book before embarking on the 9,000 mile journey aboard the 20 foot Pagan Ahead. Lay a mission that was to reveal in him elements not only of astounding courage and determination but also of incredible foolhardiness. Within 500 miles of Panama John Caldwell had already been shipwrecked once and had his boat's engine and cockpit destroyed by an angry shark. Indefatigable, he decided to press on towards his goal. He endured the terrors and discomforts of life on the high seas and enjoyed the triumphs of fighting and winning against the elements. This is more than an exciting tale of sea adventure. It is as compelling and unpredictable as a thriller. It is the story, witty and moving, of a man motivated initially by love and ultimately by his own fierce determination to survive.

Mary's Voyage Mary Caldwell, Matthew M. Douglas, 2008 One of the most successful sailing stories ever written is Desperate Voyage by John Caldwell. In this book John, stranded penniless in Panama after World War II, sets out for Sydney to rejoin his wife Mary, whom he had not seen since their three day honeymoon over a year before. His famous book tells of the adventurous journey in a twenty foot boat. Now almost sixty years later, Mary tells her own story in this fascinating biography. Born in England, Mary immigrated with her family to Australia where she spent her early youth on a farm. As a young woman, she served in the Australian Air Force. During the war, she met Tex, her future husband, John Caldwell, a young cocky American who became the inspirational mainspring for her adventures. In 1952, after living in California for several years, Mary and John and their children became the first family to attempt a voyage around the world on a small sailing craft using only a sextant and dead reckoning to guide them across thousands of miles of ocean. Mary was pregnant at the beginning of the voyage and already had a toddler and an infant son in tow. Months would pass without sight of land. She gave birth to her youngest son in Tahiti, weathered constant seasickness, and survived frightening ocean storms, several hurricanes, and a tsunami. Mary and John finally settled in the Grenadines where they built the world renowned Palm Island resort. Mary's story of endurance and fearlessness is remarkable and inspiring.
