Tobacco, 1925 Creating Europe from the Margins Kristín Loftsdóttir, Brigitte Hipfl, Sandra Ponzanesi, 2023-08-10 This edited volume explores the idea of Europe through a focus on its margins The chapters in the volume inquire critically into the relations and tensions inherent in divisions between the Global North and the Global South as well as internal regional differentiation within Europe itself In doing so the volume stresses the need to consider Europe from critical interdisciplinary perspectives highlighting historical and contemporary issues of racism and colonialism While recent discussions of migration into Fortress Europe seem to assume that Europe has clearly demarcated geographic political and cultural boundaries this book argues that the reality is more complex The book explores margins conceptually and positions margins and centres as open to negotiation and contestation and characterized by ambiguity As such margins can be contextualized in relation to hierarchies within Europe with different processes involved in creating boundaries and borders between different kinds of Europes and Europeans Deploying case studies from different places such as Iceland Italy Poland Spain Turkey the UK Romania Cyprus Greece Sicily European colonies in the Caribbean and the former Yugoslavia the contributors analyse how different geopolitical hierarchies intersect with racialized subject positions of diverse people living in Europe while also exploring issues of gender class sexuality religion and nationality Some chapters draw attention to the fortification of Europe s borderland while others focus on internal hierarchies within Europe critiquing the meaning of spatial boundaries in an increasingly digitalized Europe In doing so the chapters interrogate the hierarchies at play in the processes of being and becoming European and the ongoing impacts of race and colonialism This timely and thought provoking collection will be of considerable significance to those in the humanities and social sciences with an interest in Europe Chapters 11 and 12 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Exploring Domestic Tourism in the Nordics Paavola, Juho-Matti, Tiensuu, Ilkka, Saari, Simo, Holm, Jens, 2023-06-12 Available online <https://pub.norden.org/temanord2023/519> Covid 19 pandemic was a shock to the tourism industry in the Nordic countries Loss of international tourism both inbound and outbound due to the Covid 19 related restrictions forced tourism enterprises and development organisations to adapt their products and services to meet the needs of domestic travellers This report examines the domestic tourism sector its significance and future in the Nordic countries autonomous areas and in selected border regions between the Nordic countries and investigates practical examples of measures taken during the crisis According to the results the pandemic served as an eye opener to the significance of domestic tourism in the Nordic countries and autonomous areas and the future of domestic tourism is generally seen as positive However tourism sector developers must work together to realise the full potential of domestic tourism market

Nordic Coastal Tourism Christian Dragin-Jensen, Grzegorz Kwiatkowski, Ove Oklevik, 2024-12-18 This book explores sustainable tourism development and examines the development strategies of different coastal regions in the Nordic region In recent decades tourism research has been topical among researchers in the Nordic region and in international tourism literature Especially important in this is research on coastal tourism which is both a linear and area based activity An increased interest in coastal tourism has been determined by the fact that around 40 percent of the world s population lives on the coast or within the coastal zone and these communities are dependent on coastal tourism besides their other professions such as fisheries agriculture and commercial port activities Nordic coasts combine a rich maritime heritage and tradition with an unrivalled diversity of landscapes and natural refuges Its oceans and seas are known for their biological richness and great beauty Coastal and maritime tourism constitutes one of the Nordic countries most important touristic thematic sub sectors With further perspectives for growth in the coming years coastal and maritime tourism s full potential is yet to be unveiled Guaranteeing the conditions for sustainable coastal and maritime tourism development may significantly contribute to Nordic s economic growth and employment It can also support the sustainable development of the more remote coastal regions bringing the Nordics closer together and endowing coastal communities with sustainable solutions for the future

Winter Tourism
 Ulrike Pröbstl-Haider, Harold Richens, Stefan Türk, 2019-10-03 Winter tourism has seen increased levels of investment in recent times in an effort to reduce economic risk address environmental concerns and adapt to the effects of global warming New ski destinations are developing and merging with traditional ones to increase spatial distribution while many established leading resorts are adapting their management models Climate change adaptation processes are supported by the reduction of CO2 emissions and energy consumption in ski resorts Current planning challenges include the increasing importance of scenic beauty nature and sustainable development as well as snow reliability snow management and safety issues
