Destination Lapland:

Exploring non-human work in tourism Jillian M. Rickly, Carol Kline, 2021-02-22 Critical animal studies is increasingly interfacing with tourism research in an effort to shed light on the various ways animals are incorporated into touristic experience Exploring non human work in tourism From beasts of burden to animal ambassadors builds upon the theoretical connections of animal ethics agency and welfare as it foregrounds specifically the work that animals perform in the industry While some types of animal labor are more readily identified readers of this volume may be surprised by how many forms of animal labor are overlooked Taking a widely international perspective with cases from the Arctic China Costa Rica China Finland Greece Mexico New Zealand and the United Kingdom this volume offers readers diverse scenarios of animals working The book is arranged along three themes of work Performative work focuses on the animals whose performances are front and center of tourists motivations and experiences Value added work turns attention to the co working relationships of animals while the political work of animals as ambassadors and icons is examined within the chapters on hidden labor Additionally the book makes theoretical considerations of the implications of positioning animals as workers and offers reflections on ways this focus on working animals extends current scholarship in the field

The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Experience Management and Marketing Saurabh Kumar Dixit, 2020-05-18 The Routledge Handbook of Tourism Experience Management and Marketing offers a comprehensive and thorough inquiry into both customary and emergent issues of tourism experience and co creation Drawing together contributions from 83 authors from 28 countries with varied backgrounds and interdisciplinary interests the handbook highlights multiple representations and interpretations of the theme It also integrates a selection of illustrative global case studies to effectively present its chapter contents Tourism experience drives the contemporary tourist s behavior as they travel in pursuit of experiencing unique and unusual destinations and activities Creating a memorable and enduring experience is therefore a prerequisite for the all tourism business organizations irrespective of the nature of their products or services This handbook focuses on conceptualizing designing staging managing and marketing paradigms of tourism experiences from both supply and demand perspectives It sheds substantial light on the contemporary theories practices and future developments in the arena of experiential tourism management and marketing Encompassing the latest thinking and research themes this will be an essential reference for upper level students researchers academics and industry practitioners of hospitality as well as those of tourism gastronomy management marketing consumer behavior cultural studies development studies and international business encouraging dialogue across disciplinary boundaries

Managing Change in Tourism Peter Keller, Thomas Bieger, 2010

Qualitative Methodologies in Tourism Studies Milka Ivanova, Dorina-Maria Buda, Elisa Burrai, 2022-09-05 Disruptive and creative research methodologies proposed in this book are designed to dismantle neoliberal narratives deployed in tourism studies and wider social sciences Progressing criticality in tourism studies this volume showcases cutting edge contributions ranging from reflexivity subjectivities and dreams to messy emotions in auto ethnographic accounts of fieldwork motherhood capital accessing Inuit communities collective memory work ethnodrama and creative non fiction amongst others Disruption and creativity are the two ideas around which tourism geographers challenge and begin dismantling hegemonic ideologies in tourism studies The chapters in this book provide a vantage point from where to disrupt first before tourism geographers can engender progress and transformation within and outside of the field In tourism studies in general and tourism geography in particular the years of the 2000s have witnessed an emphasis on qualitative methodological research both in terms of the topics addressed and the types of methodological tools In many ways this legitimisation of qualitative work mirrors developments in other areas such as human geography sociology and anthropology in which this book is anchored The authors debate in more depth how tourism studies offer multidimensional multilogical and multi emotional approaches to research design The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Geographies

The Future of Tourism Eduardo Fayos-Solà,Chris Cooper,2018-08-22 This book presents the foundations for the future of tourism in a structured and detailed format The who is who of tourism intelligence has collaborated to present a definitive blueprint for tourism reflecting the role of science market institutions and governance in its innovation and sustainability The book adopts a comprehensive approach exploring recent research and the latest developments in practice to inform the reader about instruments and actions that can shape a successful future for tourism Broad in scope the book incorporates the perspectives of leading tourism academics as well as the views of tourism entrepreneurs destination managers government officials and civil leaders The book is divided into three parts the first of which addresses the scientific facets of innovation analyzing the challenges and opportunities that technology provides for organic and disruptive developments in tourism which will shape its future In turn the second part examines socio cultural paradigms with a view to dismantling traditional barriers to innovation It also explores the role of heritage and the ethics of inclusiveness as drivers for sustainable tourism The third part investigates new ways and means in governance and policy making for tourism It introduces advances such as strategic positioning symbiotic partnerships and innovative management and closes by presenting governance frameworks for an inclusive and sustainable future of tourism

Tourism Enterprises and the Sustainability Agenda across Europe David Leslie,2016-02-24 With the emphasis on small enterprises this book provides a comprehensive analysis of what is happening across Europe in terms of sustainable development objectives and sustainability in the context of tourism supply Each contribution in this edited collection addresses specific aspects of tourism enterprise activity within the overall context of policy and practice aimed at improving environmental performance A series of broader issues are examined such as EU environmental policy and initiatives as they relate to tourism social issues such as equity and employment and transport followed by detailed examples of specific case studies Well informed and based on current research this book is informative and invaluable to any one studying tourism and hospitality today particularly those
