

A Parent Guide to the Accelerated Reader Program

What is the Accelerated Reader Program?

Accelerated Reader is a computer program that allows you to help monitor your child's progress in reading books at his or her appropriate reading level.

1. Read the Book

After your child has selected her book, she should read independently at home and do a short quiz at school. This will help her learn to understand and enjoy the book.

2. Track the Progress

The program will track the books that your child reads, along with their quiz scores and test points.

The information is then used by teachers to monitor children's progress and offer additional support if and when needed. The idea of the program is to help children to develop their reading skills at their own pace.

Benefits of the Accelerated Reader Program?

Encourage children to read regularly, making books and reading fun through their own skills.

Help to read with the parent and with the teacher's records and to encourage a school.

Monitor an individual's progress through helping them build confidence in themselves.

Monitor the progress of the program and points.

How can I help my child at home?

Read at least 20 minutes for reading to help comprehension skills. The more children read, the more they will get at school.

Read all books your child can read. The more they read, the more books they will read for your child. Encourage them to read all the books they can.

Read together and let your child explain the book to you. This will help them understand all the content.

Encourage conversations around the book and questions like "What is your favorite character?" "How do you think the author is feeling?" "What do you think the story is about?" "What do you think the story is about?"

Encourage and encourage them to read.

Encourage your child to read for fun and provide additional support and encouragement to help them to read.

Monitor progress so that you can encourage them to read more books at school. You should also monitor their reading level and encourage them to read more books.

Concerns and Standings

What should I do if my child asks why books to get more points?

Reading books that are not within the reading level may seem appealing to your child as they will be able to read the books quickly and more easily.

The more that they read, the more they will understand and enjoy the program. However, it is important to your child's reading level. Encourage them to read books that are within their reading level.

Why reading is important?

Reading helps your child to learn and understand the world around them. It also helps them to learn to read and write.
