The Absolute Bourgeois T. J. Clark, Timothy J. Clark, 1999-01-01 T J Clark's classic work of art history refuses to separate art from its social and political context in revolutionary France The Absolute Bourgeois, 1999 The Absolute Bourgeois Clark, 1978 The Absolute Bourgeois Timothy J. Clark, 1973 Plastic Capitalism Amanda Boetzkes, 2019-03-19 An argument for the centrality of the visual culture of waste as seen in works by international contemporary artists to the study of our ecological condition Ecological crisis has driven contemporary artists to engage with waste in its most non biodegradable forms plastics e waste toxic waste garbage hermetically sealed in landfills In this provocative and original book Amanda Boetzkes links the increasing visualization of waste in contemporary art to the rise of the global oil economy and the emergence of ecological thinking Often when art is analyzed in relation to the political scientific or ecological climate it is considered merely illustrative Boetzkes argues that art is constitutive of an ecological consciousness not simply an extension of it The visual culture of waste is central to the study of the ecological condition Boetzkes examines a series of works by an international roster of celebrated artists including Thomas Hirschhorn Francis Al's Song Dong Tara Donovan Agn's Varda Gabriel Orozco and Mel Chin among others mapping waste art from its modernist origins to the development of a new waste imaginary generated by contemporary artists Boetzkes argues that these artists do not offer a predictable or facile critique of consumer culture Bearing this in mind she explores the ambivalent relationship between waste both aestheticized and reviled and a global economic regime that curbs energy expenditure while promoting profitable forms of resource consumption Artistic Relations Peter Collier, Robert Lethbridge, Professor of French Language and Literature Robert Lethbridge, 1994-01-01 In this innovative volume literary critics and art historians explore the relationship between literature and the visual arts in 19th century France Eighteen leading scholars including Pierre Bourdieu Germaine Greer Segolene Le Men Roger Cardinal and Mary Ann Caws analyse contemporary forms of representation to reveal the rich variety of factors that link image and text

Serial Revolutions 1848 Clare Pettitt, 2022-02-10 1848 was a pivotal moment not only in Europe but in much of the rest of the world too Marx's scornful dismissal of the revolutions created a historiography for 1848 that has persisted for more than 150 years Serial Revolutions 1848 shows how far from being the failure that Karl Marx claimed them to be the revolutions of 1848 were a powerful response to the political failure of governments across Europe to care for their people Crucially this revolutionary response was the result of new forms of representation and mediation until the ragged and the angry could see themselves represented and represented as a serial phenomenon such a political consciousness was impossible By the 1840s the developments in printing transport and distribution discussed in Clare Pettitt's Serial Forms The

Unfinished Project of Modernity 1815 1848 Oxford University Press 2020 had made the social visible in an unprecedented way This print revolution led to a series of real and bloody revolutions in the streets of European cities The revolutionaries of 1848 had the temerity to imagine universal human rights and a world in which everyone could live without fear hunger or humiliation If looked at like this the events of 1848 do not seem such poor incidents as Marx described them nor such an embarrassing failure after all Returning to 1848 we can choose to look back on that springtime of the peoples as a moment of tragi comic failure obliterated by the brutalities that followed or we can look again and see it as a proleptic moment of stored potential an extraordinary series of events that generated long distance and sustainable ideas about global citizenship international co operation and a shared and common humanity which have not yet been fully understood or realised

A Brief History of the Masses Stefan Jonsson, 2008 Stefan Jonsson uses three monumental works of art to build a provocative history of popular revolt Jacques Louis David s The Tennis Court Oath 1791 James Ensor s Christ s Entry into Brussels in 1889 1888 and Alfredo Jaar s They Loved It So Much the Revolution 1989 Addressing respectively the French Revolution of 1789 Belgium s proletarian messianism in the 1880s and the worldwide rebellions and revolutions of 1968 these canonical images not only depict an alternative view of history but offer a new understanding of the relationship between art and politics and the revolutionary nature of true democracy Drawing on examples from literature politics philosophy and other works of art Jonsson carefully constructs his portrait revealing surprising parallels between the political representation of the people in government and their aesthetic representation in painting Both essentially frame the people Jonsson argues defining them as elites or masses responsible citizens or angry mobs Yet in the aesthetic fantasies of David Ensor and Jaar Jonsson finds a different understanding of democracy one in which human collectives break the frame and enter the picture Connecting the achievements and failures of past revolutions to current political issues Jonsson then situates our present moment in a long historical drama of popular unrest making his book both a cultural history and a contemporary discussion about the fate of democracy in our globalized world
