Trés Blue Robert W Walker, 2026-03-22 When FBI psychic Dr Aurelia Murphy Hiyakawa is asked in on a case in New Orleans she soon learns that the missing Gone Girls may as yet be alive and that their abductor is a collector rather than a typical serial abductor killer With three missing and as yet no clue as to where they may be the only saving grace is that no bodies have shown up There is little about this case that resembles anything that Rae Hiyakawa has faced before in PSI Blue and D j Blue But the case takes on a new wrinkle that no one could have predicted when Rae's psychic abilities see into the heart of the victims and the secret what it is about them that attracts the Collector What they all have in common It is not a typical case by any means nor can authorities find a typical pattern in the victimology In fact the Collector may have good reason for abducting these particular victims Reasons no one but Rae can ultimately fathom At the same time that Rae is investigating with the help of the NOPD in the Crescent City she has to deal with her daughter Nia whose teen angst has Rae at her wit s end trying to determine how to play the right card s with Nia Comic relief as seen in the modern day problems of teenagers Rae s ghostly parents also return to tell her how to raise her child giving advice from the grave Meanwhile other mainstay characters of the series return as well as new ones The novel is both laugh out loud funny and a serious crime detection story at once
