

OBJECTIVES OF ACCOUNTING

The primary objectives of accounting are to:

- maintain records of business
- calculate profit or loss
- depict the financial position
- make information available to various groups and users

MEANING OF ACCOUNTING

Accounting is a process of identifying, measuring, recording the business transactions and communicating thereof the required information to the interested users.

INTRODUCTION TO ACCOUNTING

ROLE OF ACCOUNTING

Accounting is not an end in itself. It is a means to an end. It plays the role of a:

- Language of a business
- Historical record
- Current economic reality
- Information system
- Service to users

ACCOUNTING AS A SOURCE OF INFORMATION

Accounting as a source of information system is the process of identifying, measuring, recording and communicating the economic events of an organisation to interested users of the information.

Accounting plays a significant role in society by providing information to management at all levels and to those having a direct financial interest in the enterprise, such as present and potential investors and creditors. Accounting information is also important to those having indirect financial interest, such as regulatory agencies, tax authorities, customers, labour unions, trade associations, stock exchanges and others
