Abstract: A new concept for Personal Communication System that achieves the ultimate object of all communications systems, to enable anyone to communicate anywhere with anyone else anywhere is proposed. This concept offers a personal area or network with subscriber access systems for both wired and radio systems. Its three principal concepts are: (1) assigning a personal identity such as a Personal Telecommunication Number for an individual, and the network traces the person's routing; (2) serving a fixed and portable units for radio and wired, and (3) serving advanced functions such as the network playing the role of secretary. System architecture and some problems are also presented.

1. Introduction

Recently the information-intensive society has developed, and the social and cultural structure has changed to a great extent. A great variety of people's behavior in the communication world, caused by advanced services that enable us to communicate conveniently with anyone anywhere in space and time is appearing. In order to realize this type of user-oriented service, many kinds of systems are being studied or developed, such as mobile, automobile radio systems (MRS, IRS), and advanced cordless systems (MPT, LIS, Telepoint, DCOM, MPT, MRS).

In international standardization, CCIR standardized in 1971, is the preliminary stage discussing a mobile radio and fixed approaches. In ITU-T, SRS and SRS, DC, in CCITT, SGL, SGL, SGL, S, and SGL, several subjects are discussed, for example, numbering, network functions, signaling, and so on (1)(2)(3).

There are many proposals proposed to offer big economic personal communication services to users by the mobile subscribers, because with mobility and individual mobility have been applied for radio systems in other systems. The present work is a utilization efficiency must be improved to accommodate an indefinite number of subscribers and a radio area must be less than several 100-1000 m. The radio area should also be realized to realize area-wide portable terminals that are accompanied by large centers can be for wireless power. Furthermore, in order to become a sufficient number of service areas, a large number of radio systems has to be set, and the more systems more have to be set in theory. It is difficult to set more radio in 100 m. The number of service areas must also be set, and the centers must be increase the number of radio systems in the world. As a result, the existing system configurations methods will agree very difficult problems in extending the service area.

For this reason we propose an advanced personal communication system in which each function is located registration and contains a portable service provided by public communication networks. Configuration and mobile service developments can be realized by using public communication networks facilities as transport systems. The proposed system enables user persons to afford a portable telephone service in a large and efficient and convenient capacity.

2. Service Concept

- Our proposed service concept is shown in Table 1.
- (1) Personal communication system can be realized by using Personal Telecommunication Number (PTN), or Number - Identity to identify with each wired and radio systems for service systems including very small electronic equipment portable terminals.
 - (2) Mobility services according to user's choice and purpose.

Radio service design for service in Table 1. The proposed system requires a portable stationary telephone sets, but also radio terminals. Services are available anywhere, such as home, office, or outdoors. The mobility should be less than or equal to that of mobile phone. A portable service provided from the
