Courting Shadows:

Courting Shadows Jem Poster, 2009-01-27 A fantastically tightly written read every word novel As a psychological thriller it is as close to wonderful as anything I've recently read The Guardian In the winter of 1881 John Stannard a young architect is in self imposed exile in a remote English village carrying out repairs to the parish church Arrogant and insensitive to what he considers superstition and sentimental attachment to the past he soon begins to inflict serious damage on the ancient building as well as on those with whom he comes into contact most notably the beautiful ambitious local girl Ann Rosewell This is the mesmerizing tale of a man who clings ferociously to his warped notion of civilized behavior unwilling to admit his need for love Set in a vividly evoked landscape and taut with foreboding Jem Poster's striking first novel pits reason against emotion progress against preservation and explores our capacity for invention and self delusion the stories we tell each other and the stories we tell ourselves A dazzling debut Wholly involving from start to finish Publishers Weekly starred review Written in lavishly beautiful prose this is a consistently tense tale of rationality self delusion and epidemic superstition
