Boyd & Evans,Fionnuala Boyd,Leslie Evans,Robert Heller,Angela Flowers Gallery (London, England),1988 Boyd & Evans Leslie Evans,2000 The other was Rene Magritte Looking at the world through the filter of his work moments in everyday life began to look just as startling So someone looking up over their shoulder became dazzlingly strange and complex as they made a physical connection between the earth and the sky appearing simultaneously optimistic and apprehensive There was already a story both factual and emotional We attempt to collect such moments with a camera Narrative Painting in Britain in the 20th Century at the Camden Arts Centre in 1970 was the first public exhibition to show our work Since then narrative has been the one label we would accept without flinching We do not like being referred to as realists whether hyper super photo or just plain Reality is so different from a picture There is never any confusion Pictorial would be better representational quite good enough
