Europe of Rights: A Compendium on the European Convention of Human Rights Javier García Roca,Pablo Santolaya,2012-03-20 This book is a systematic commentary on half a century of case law on the Convention system made by a group of legal experts from various universities and legal disciplines It provides a guide of the rights protected under ECHR as well as a better understanding open to supranational scenarios of fundamental rights in the respective Constitutions Our intention is not only to make available a mere case law commentary This work indeed offers succinct information on the most consolidated lines of case law and this is probably where it is most useful Nevertheless there is also academic reflection which we believe is nowadays essential as Europe is becoming more than a continent it is above all a civilisation with a common language of rights a developing ius commune

The Complete Idiot's Guide to Learning French Gail Stein,1999-09-01 You re no idiot of course You appreciate wine and brie can pronounce croissant and know that bonjour means hello But when it comes to actually learning the language you feel stranded on the Eiffel Tower with no way down Dont strap on your parachute just yet The Complete Idiots Guide to Learning French Second Edition makes mastering French fun and entertaining instead of bogging you down with verb tenses and vocabulary lists Youll feel confident about parlaying your new proficiency into conversations with native speakers

Colonial Vocabularies Sarah Irving,Karène Sanchez Summerer,Rachel Mairs,Lucia Admiraal,2025-10-01 Language teaching and learning were crucial to Europeans colonial national and individual enterprises in the Levant and in these processes Oriental language teachers as they were termed prior to the Second World War were fundamental European state nationalisms influenced and increasingly competed with each other by promoting their languages and cultures abroad by means of both private and governmental actors At the same time learning Arabic became more prominent around the Mediterranean The first half of the twentieth century corresponded with the emergence of new media language was thought of as a cultural product to be exported into new cultural spaces However many blind spots remain in the history of linguistic thought and practices including the forgotten and neglected voices of those involved in learning and teaching Arabic This volume aims to revisit aspects of this linguistic encounter including its vision profile priorities trajectories and practices A discussion of Arabic teaching across a wide geographical and temporal range Engaging case studies which add intriguing detail and colour to historical study Siting of language study within highly topical colonial and postcolonial contexts and debates

Empires in World War I Richard S. Fogarty,Andrew Tait Jarboe,2014-04-08

Soon after the guns in Belgium and France had signalled the commencement of what would become the world's single most destructive conflict to date the British Ottoman German Russian Austro-Hungarian French and Belgian Empires were at war Empires in World War I marks a turn away from the pre-eminence of the Western Front in the current scholarship and seeks to reconstitute our understanding of this war as a truly global struggle between competing empires Based on primary research this book opens up new debates on the effects of the Great War in colonial arenas The book assesses the effects of the war on Native Americans in the United States for example as well as on the relationship between India and Pakistan the British justice system in Palestine and the imperial scramble in the Asia-Pacific region Empires in World War I will be essential reading for students and scholars of the twentieth century

Survival of Cancer Patients in Europe F. Berrino, International Agency for Research on Cancer, 1995 This book is a compilation and discussion of data on the survival of cancer patients in 12 European countries Measures of incidence survival and mortality are critical to the interpretation of data on progress in the fight against cancer and in the evaluation of the overall effectiveness of cancer control programmes Randomized controlled clinical trials have shown many modern protocols for cancer treatment to be more effective than earlier treatments but until now comparable population based survival figures have rarely been available EURO CARE is a concerted action among European cancer registries aimed at estimating and comparing the survival of cancer patients in different European populations The rationale behind this project is to optimize the comparability of survival data by using an agreed and standard definition of the diseases for which survival is to be compared and by taking due account of basic demographic variables The EURO CARE Working Group succeeded in collecting checking and editing data on cancer survival from 30 cancer registries in 12 countries and established a database covering some 800 000 cancer patients in the period 1978-85 and followed up to the end of 1990 This database forms the raw material for this monograph
