American Beach:

An American Beach for African Americans Marsha Dean Phelts, 2010-05-25 In the only complete history of Florida's American Beach to date Marsha Dean Phelts draws together personal interviews photos newspaper articles memoirs maps and official documents to reconstruct the character and traditions of Amelia Island's 200 acre African American community In its heyday when other beaches grudgingly provided only limited access black vacationers traveled as many as 1 000 miles down the east coast of the United States and hundreds of miles along the Gulf coast to a beachfront that welcomed their business Beginning in 1781 with the Samuel Harrison homestead on the southern end of Amelia Island Phelts traces the birth of the community to General Sherman's Special Field Order No 15 in which the Union granted many former Confederate coastal holdings including Harrison's property to former slaves She then follows the lineage of the first African American families known to have settled in the area to descendants remaining there today including those of Zephaniah Kingsley and his wife Anna Jai Moving through the Jim Crow era Phelts describes the development of American Beach's predecessors in the early 1900s Finally she provides the fullest account to date of the life and contributions of Abraham Lincoln Lewis the wealthy African American businessman who in 1935 as president of the Afro American Life Insurance Company initiated the purchase and development of the tract of seashore known as American Beach From Lewis's arrival on the scene Phelts follows the community's sustained development and growth highlighting landmarks like the Ocean Vu Inn and the Blue Palace and concluding with a stirring plea for the preservation of American Beach which is currently threatened by encroaching development In a narrative full of firsthand accounts and old timer stories Phelts who has vacationed at American Beach since she was four and now lives there frequently adopts the style of an oral historian to paint what is ultimately a personal and intimate portrait of a community rich in heritage and culture

Saving American Beach Heidi Tyline King, 2021-04-13 This heartfelt picture book biography illustrated by the Caldecott Honoree Ekua Holmes tells the story of MaVynee Betsch an African American opera singer turned environmentalist and the legacy she preserved MaVynee loved going to the beach But in the days of Jim Crow she couldn't just go to any beach

most of the beaches in Jacksonville were for whites only Knowing something must be done her grandfather bought a beach that African American families could enjoy without being reminded they were second class citizens he called it American Beach Artists like Zora Neale Hurston and Ray Charles vacationed on its sunny shores It s here that MaVynee was first inspired to sing propelling her to later become a widely acclaimed opera singer who routinely performed on an international stage But her first love would always be American Beach After the Civil Rights Act desegregated public places there was no longer a need for a place like American Beach and it slowly fell into disrepair MaVynee remembered the importance of American Beach to her family and so many others so determined to preserve this integral piece of American history she began her second act as an activist and conservationist ultimately saving the place that had always felt most like home
