Broadcasting Finance In Transition A Comparative Handbook:

Broadcasting Finance in Transition Jay G. Blumler, T. J. Nossiter, 1991-07-04 This is an important study of the crucial issue of alternatives in commercial and public support of broadcasting in the U S and Europe The Peacock Committee on Financing the BBC a committee sponsored by the British government commissioned Jay Blumler and Tom Nossiter to investigate the impact of alternate ways of financing the BBC on the range and quality of broadcasting They then commissioned papers on broadcasting financing in the United States Canada the Netherlands France Italy Sweden Germany Australia New Zealand and Japan to answer the question Should the BBC allow some commercial support in financing This is an essential collection for broadcast policy makers and researchers Broadcasting Finance in Transition Jay G. Blumler, Thomas Johnson Nossiter, 1991-01-01 Much of this study which addresses the issue of alternative ways of financing public service broadcasting in the USA and Europe has been based on the Peacock Committee on Financing the BBC in which the author was involved

Management and Economics of Communication M. Bjørn Rimscha, 2020-06-08 This handbook combines the perspectives of communication studies economics and management and psychology in order to provide a comprehensive economic view on personal and mass communication It is divided into six parts that comprise 1 an overarching introduction that defines the field and provides a brief overview of its history 1 chapter 2 the most commonly used theoretic frameworks for the analysis of communication economics and management 4 chapters 3 the peculiarities of the quantitative and qualitative methods and data used in the field 3 chapters 4 key issues of the field such as the economics of language labor in creative industries media concentration branding etc 10 chapters 5 descriptions of the development trends and peculiarities of the field in different parts of the world written by scholars from the respective region 10 chapters 6 reflections on future directions for the field both from a managerial and from an economics perspective 1 chapter The authors of the individual chapters represent different academic disciplines research traditions and geographic backgrounds The reader will thus gain multifaceted insights into the management and economics of communication British Television Policy Bob Franklin, 2001

British Television Policy A Reader provides a forum for the significant policy debates which have informed and shaped television broadcasting since the publication in 1986 of the Peacock Committee Report on the financing of the BBC The Reader presents key documents and critically analyses their impact on the organisation financial resources programme content editorial philosophy and the regulatory environment of television broadcasting Recognising that policy making is not wholly a prerogative of government British Television Policy provides readers with access to a wide range of statutory and non governmental documents which have affected British broadcasting legislation Acts of Parliament Private Members Bills Select Committee Reports Official statements by Ministers Parliamentary inquiries such as the Davies Report Policy documents prepared by interest groups such as the Campaign for Quality Television and the Voice of the Listener and Viewer Strategic announcements from the ITC Statements from the BBC and ITV Public lectures by media owners and executives such as Rupert Murdoch and Richard Eyre Commentaries from media academics and media analysts Beginning with a comprehensive editorial introduction which details television policy since 1945 the Reader is arranged in thematic sections which explore the purpose of television broadcasting the financing of television broadcasting policy and quality regulation and the relationship of broadcasting and politics Each section is accompanied by an editor s introduction and commentary and the Reader is supported by a glossary and a guide to further reading

Conflicting Communication Interests in America Tom McCourt,1999-10-30 Public broadcasting has changed dramatically since its founding in 1967 The growing equation of marketplace efficiency with the public interest has in Tom McCourt s analysis undermined the value of public goods and services In addition political and cultural discourse is increasingly beset by fragmentation Public radio provides an exemplary site to examine the prospects and problems of contemporary public life Beginning with a description of the events that led to the creation of National Public Radio McCourt discusses the relationship between NPR and its affiliate stations and the ways in which struggles over funding and programming have affected public radio s agenda He also examines how public radio incorporates the roles of public representatives into its operations and how its methods to determine the needs and interests of the public have changed across the system s history The social political and economic pressures that have impacted the mission and practices of National Public Radio McCourt asserts are manifest in all areas of American life Through extensive historical research he examines whether American public broadcasters as represented by NPR have succeeded or failed to engender an enlightened participatory democracy

Donders,2011-11-15 An in depth account of EU policies in the area of public service broadcasting focusing mainly on the application of the European State aid rules The book discusses when how and with what impact the European Commission deals with public service broadcasting

Communication, Commerce and Power Edward A. Comor,2016-01-06 In this history of US based direct broadcast satellite developments the United States and other nation states are shown to be the ultimate arbiters of their ongoing histories In making this now unfashionable argument Edward A Comor directly challenges recent academic work that tends to privilege global processes over national and argues that the contemporary world order is being shaped primarily by transnational rather than nation state based forces In testing this orientation with empirical research on US foreign communication policy since 1960 Communication Commerce and Power compels academics and policy makers to rethink commonplace assumptions about the characteristics and potentials of the contemporary and future international political economy

Private Television in Western Europe K. Donders,C. Pauwels,J. Loisen,2016-01-23 Private Television in Western Europe Content Markets Policies describes analyses and evaluates the phenomenon of private television in Europe clustered around the themes of European and national
