Domestic Fables:

False Fables and Exemplary Truth E. Allen, 2016-04-30 This study charts relationships between moral claims and audience response in medieval exemplary works by such poets as Chaucer Gower Robert Henryson and several anonymous scribes In late medieval England exemplary works make one of the strongest possible claims for the social value of poetic fiction Studying this debate reveals a set of local literary histories based on both canonical and non canonical texts that complicate received notions of the didactic Middle Ages the sophisticated Renaissance and the fallow fifteenth century in between Æsop's Fables Aesop, 1893 The Empire of the Mother Mary P. Ryan, 1982 This stimulating book is a comprehensive record of the antebellum period It examines various aspects of social history and intellectual history of that period in the context of the 19th century s cult of domesticity The development of the ideology of domesticity in this period and its implications are clearly explored in this startling and important feminist work *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
