are kid sized ones that they can work out themselves tattling is a fact of life for young children Their ability to solve problems on their own is just developing and they often feel they can t manage a situation without help from an adult As every teacher and parent knows kids also tattle on their classmates and siblings because they want to look like the good child or be appreciated as helpful or even just get some attention And of course kids sometimes tattle as a means of getting back at another child especially a bigger brother or sister Don t Squeal Unless It s a Big Deal helps kids learn when telling is appropriate and when it is merely squealing With warmth and humor this story for young grade schoolers offers easy
