Peterson, Natashe Lemos Dekker, Philip R. Olson, 2024-01-09 Death studies typically focus on the death of humans overlooking the wider factors involved in social and natural processes around death This edited volume provides an alternative focus for death studies by looking beyond human death to reveal the complex interconnections among human and more than human creatures entities and environments Bringing together a diverse range of international scholars the book sheds light on topics which have previously remained at the margins of contemporary death studies and death care cultures Organised around three themes Knowledge and Mediation Care and Remembrance and Agency and Power this book pushes the boundaries of death studies to explore death and dying from beyond the perspective of a nature culture binary The Law Reports, 1896 Through the Waters Caleb S. Lewis, 2024-06-04 Links to the Exodus and the Day of Atonement are found throughout the book of Genesis These links are so pervasive that though often overlooked they are an integral part of the literary strategy of the author of Genesis The goal of Through the Waters is to aid the reader in understanding the book of Genesis as the author intended taking into account its literary and historical features The goal is not only to understand each section of the book of Genesis on its own but also to understand how each section contributes to the book as a unified narrative As each narrative section is explored and explained the presence of the Exodus motif or pattern and what will be referred to as the Two Goats motif will be highlighted As these motifs are understood in the context of the text of Genesis it will be seen how they contribute to the literary structure and to the tensions expectations and hope created by the book of Genesis Tales of Yukaghir, Lamut, and Russanized Natives of Eastern Siberia Valdimir Germanovich Bogoraz, 1918 Macmillan's Magazine, 1860 Annual Report of the Registrar-General for England and Wales Great Britain.
