ReFocus: The Films of Rachid Bouchareb is the first book-length study of the internationally recognized director's films. Bouchareb was one of France's first filmmakers of North African descent, and his career as a director and producer now spans over 35 years. Remarkably varied in their themes, formal elements, and narrative settings, Bouchareb's work has engaged with and reflected on a variety of crucial social, political, and historical issues, from the role of colonial troops in the French army during the Second World War to terrorism in contemporary Europe.
