Basic Judo:

Judo for Young Explorers Fred Guerra, 2026-01-07 Judo for Young Explorers is an invitation for children and young people to discover Judo far beyond throws and competitions. In a light educational and engaging way, the book presents the Gentle Way as a journey of self-discovery, discipline, respect, and courage. Through charismatic characters such as Sensei Genzo and his students, readers learn about the origins of Judo, the story of Jigoro Kano, the meaning of the dojo, belt ranks, etiquette, the values of the martial art, and how these principles apply to everyday life. Each chapter transforms the tatami into a metaphor for challenges faced at school, within the family, and in character development. Aimed especially at children, teenagers, parents, and teachers, this book shows that Judo does not only shape athletes but also more conscious, resilient, and compassionate citizens. An inspiring read for those beginning their journey in the sport and for everyone who believes that education and values go hand in hand.
