The Journal of Biblical and Theological Studies JBTS is an academic journal focused on the fields of Bible and Theology from an inter denominational point of view The journal is comprised of an editorial board of scholars that represent several academic institutions throughout the world JBTS is concerned with presenting high level original scholarship in an approachable way Academic journals are often written by scholars for other scholars They are technical in nature assuming a robust knowledge of the field There are fewer journals that seek to introduce biblical and theological scholarship that is also accessible to students JBTS seeks to provide high level scholarship and research to both scholars and students which results in original scholarship that is readable and accessible As an inter denominational journal JBTS is broadly evangelical We accept contributions in all theological disciplines from any evangelical perspective In particular we encourage articles and book reviews within the fields of Old Testament New Testament Biblical Theology Church History Systematic Theology Practical Theology Philosophical Theology Philosophy and Ethics Homiletic David G. Buttrick,1987-01-01 Buttrick presents a complete homiletic that focuses on how sermons form in consciousness and how the language of preaching functions in the communal consciousness of a congregation His phenomenological approach marks a sharp departure from older homiletics Homiletic Review ,1929 The Homiletic Review ,1885 The Homiletic Monthly ,1884 A Treatise on Homiletics ... heed his warnings they would have to be persuaded or if necessarily legally coerced to adhere to the dictates of a Holy Society and their influence can be seen in his law codes where the book argues that even in coercion the archbishop sought to teach and to persuade
