Basic Questions In Theology Vol I:

Basic Questions in Theology W. Pannenberg, 1970 Basic Questions in Theology W. Pannenberg, 1970 Basic Questions in Theology. Vol.2 Wolfhart Pannenberg, 1971 Relationality and the Concept of God Henry Jansen, 2025-02-10 Classical theism the dominant tradition in Christian theology has stressed the metaphysical concept of God i e God s ontological transcendence and independence from the world In this century however this concept of God has increasingly met with criticism On the basis of the Bible and new philosophical considerations it is argued that a relational concept of God better answers the fundamental concerns of the Christian faith In this book the author investigates the questions of whether one can conceive of God apart from the metaphysical attributes and whether reflection on the biblical depiction of God leads necessarily to a relational concept of God The author explores the questions by examining the relational concepts of God found in two contemporary German theologians J rgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg and uses the divine attribute of immutability as a focus for the discussion He argues that the relational concept of God presupposes another metaphysical conception of God which raises problems as serious as those in classical theism and that the Bible itself because of its nature as a narrative text is ambiguous in many respects as far as God is concerned A truly Christian doctrine of God must take both the metaphysical and relational aspects of God into account Reformed Systematic Theology, Volume 1 Joel Beeke, Paul M. Smalley, 2019-03-14 The church needs good theology that engages the head heart and hands This four volume work combines rigorous historical and theological scholarship with application and practicality characterized by an accessible Reformed and experiential approach In this volume Joel R Beeke and Paul M Smalley explore the first two of eight central themes of theology revelation and God Basic questions in theology, vol.1 Wolfhart Pannenberg, 1971 God and History in the Book of Revelation Michael Gilbertson, 2003-07-24 This is an interdisciplinary study which constructs a dialogue between biblical interpretation and systematic theology It examines how far a reading of the Book of Revelation might either support or question the work of leading theologians Wolfhart Pannenberg and J rgen Moltmann on the theology of history exploring the way in which the author of Revelation uses the dimensions of space and time to make theological points about the relationship between God and history The book argues that Revelation sets the present earthly experience of the reader in the context of God s ultimate purposes by disclosing hidden dimensions of reality both spatial embracing heaven and earth and temporal extending into the ultimate future Dr Gilbertson offers a detailed assessment of the theologies of history developed by Pannenberg and Moltmann including their views on the nature of the historical process and the use of apocalyptic ideas in eschatology Basic Questions in Theology Wolfhart Pannenberg, 1973 The Noetic Effects of Sin Stephen K. Moroney, 2000-01-01 Stephen Moroney s fascinating study examines the frequently neglected topic of the noetic effects of sin a phenomenon in which sin distorts human thinking Drawing on the detailed models formulated by John Calvin Abraham Kuyper and Emil Brunner Moroney sets forth a more contemporary model of the subject He extends beyond all previous views by relating the noetic effects of sin to the complex and unpredictable interaction between the object of knowledge and the knowing subject Moroney also further examines some of the implications of the noetic effects of sin for the rationalist theology of Wolfhart Pannenberg and the Reformed epistemology of Alvin Plantinga and Nicholas Wolterstorff Lastly Moroney undertakes an interdisciplinary study of what social psychology and Christian theology contribute to our understanding of the noetic effects of sin An invaluable addition to current conversations on theology and epistemology The Noetic Effects of Sin will be of interest to scholars of theology religion and social psychology

Here Am I! Adrio König, 2011-08-01 Adrio König is among those theologians in South Africa who are attempting to break away from a traditional fundamentalist approach to the Bible typical of an older Dutch generation raised on the Neo Calvinism of Abraham Kuyper This younger generation of Reformed theologians from South Africa wants to make use of a far wider theological spectrum than merely the Netherlands This book focusing on the doctrine of God is an excellent example of contemporary theological thinking by an outstanding member of this generation König strongly asserts that his book is unlike most doctrines of God in that it is not about God in himself as is most scholastic and classical Protestant theology but rather about God in certain relationships While God does exist over and above his relationships and his actions and is thus more and greater than his deeds and relationships it is only through his deeds and relationships that we know God König goes on to explore specifically four relationships God to the gods God to man God to history and God to the future

Will Humanity Survive Religion? W. Royce Clark, 2020-06-22 When the human sciences in the West followed the physical sciences in the 18th and 19th centuries with new measurements methods and language the metaphysics of infinity lost its credibility The response of Western religions was to retrench in a stronger authoritarianism especially by the last half of the 19th century While the new human sciences were being extended even to study the history and philosophy of religions those religions themselves placed more emphasis on their understanding of the Absolute or Unquestionable That split became a burden both to those who were religious and to those who were not Here W Royce Clark argues that humanity's survival may depend on the development of a universal or inclusive ethic in which religions move beyond their Absolutes Clark poses the sharp challenge Are religious communities ready to abandon the foundations that until now they have insisted were the only adequate foundation for ethics

Basic questions in theology. (Translated ... by George H. Kehm-R. A. Wilson.) Wolfhart Pannenberg, George H. KEHM, R. A. WILSON (Translator.), 1970

Basic Questions in Theology Wolfhart Pannenberg, 2008-04 In this classic two volume set of collected essays Wolfhart Pannenberg gives special focus to the ways in which history hermeneutics reason and truth all guide and inform our various attempts at understanding God This focus then offers the reader a unique insight into the revelation of God Pannenberg writes To say that the revelation of God is not a supernatural event which breaks into history perpendicularly from above but rather that it is the theme of history itself the power that moves it in its deepest dimension is to say something about God and his relation to the world Wolfhart Pannenberg is Professor Emeritus of Theology at the University of Munich and author of several influential books including Jesus God and Man Revelation as History Theology and the Philosophy of Science and Anthropology in Theological Perspective Basic questions in theology, vol.3 Wolfhart Pannenberg,1973 Theology Digest ,1970 Basic Questions in Theology. 2 Vols Wolfhart Pannenberg,1970 Bulletin - Council on the Study of Religion Council on the Study of Religion,1974 Bible Studies on the Sabbath Question Arthur Elwin Main,1911 Basic Questions in Theology Wolfhart Pannenberg,1970 H.H.
