Rhetorical Unconsciousness and Political Psychoanalysis M. Lane Bruner,2019-06-04 Case studies exploring the roots of persuasion and rhetorical unconsciousness Rhetorical Unconsciousness and Political Psychoanalysis investigates unintentional forms of persuasion their political consequences and our ethical relation to the same M Lane Bruner argues that the unintentional ways we are persuaded are far more important than intentional persuasion in fact all intentional persuasion is built on the foundations of rhetorical unconsciousness whether we are persuaded through ignorance the unsayable unconscious symbolic processes the unspoken or productive repression the unspeakable Bruner brings together a wide range of theoretical approaches to unintentional persuasion establishing the locations of such persuasion and providing examples taken from the Western European transition from feudalism to capitalism To be more specific phenomena related to artificial personhood and the commodity self have led to transformations in material culture from architecture to theater showing how rhetorical unconsciousness works to create symptoms Bruner then examines ethical considerations the relationships among language in use unconsciousness and the seemingly irrational aspects of cultural and political history
