Creativity and Its Cultivation, Addresses Presented at the Interdisciplinary Symposia on Creativity, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan Michigan State University, 1959 Artists All Burton Raffel, 1991 Basic human drives that the arts and aesthetic experiences frequently inspire insight in scientists and sociologists that the arts themselves though mutually untranslatable share a deep unity that disciplinary boundaries and divisions can frequently stunt creativity that and that there is always a link between what artists produce and their stance toward their society's place and posture in the world When used to define intellectual disciplines the very word Interdisciplinary is a misnomer almost a contradiction in terms Raffel contends because it implies boundaries rather than interconnectedness and interrelationships Since it is his own primary concern Raffel uses literature as a touchstone analyzing its relationships with social science natural science music and the visual arts He then provides practical recommendations addressed to the academic community as a whole about ways of restructuring universities to reflect functioning interdisciplinary realities rather than convenient but artificial and seriously constrictive disciplinary boundaries Written with humor and sensitivity Artists All makes a significant contribution to current thinking about higher education

The New Spirit of Creativity Saara Liinamaa, UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

PRESS.,2022 The New Spirit of Creativity examines creativity as an embedded institutional value and priority within public art institutions and higher education The book unpacks the everyday work organization and administration of artistic creativity and its clashes with a new spirit of creativity that has widely taken hold Based on fieldwork conducted at three art and design universities in Canada Saara Liinamaa tackles the fraught landscape of contemporary higher education the uncertainties of cultural work and ongoing concerns around austerity in Canada This book traces how creativity is not simply practiced within the art school but also inequitably recognized and rewarded Liinamaa identifies the many compromises required between artistic creativity and the new spirit while demonstrating how not all compromises are created equally compromise can support or erode creative diversity Drawing on a range of original sources including interviews participant observation policy and planning and media this work makes a compelling case as to why art and design schools are worthy of sustained attention By connecting shared interests across sociology education cultural studies art history and cultural theory The New Spirit of Creativity makes a novel and agenda setting contribution to our understanding of artistic creativity compromise and cultural work
