Creativity in Preaching J. Grant Howard, 1987-01-01      Creative Preaching and Oral Writing Carl Hoefler, 1978 Creative Preaching and Oral Writing begins with a definition of preaching then goes into a discussion of the creative importance of attitude toward the preaching task toward the content toward self and toward the listeners Skillfully comparing the structure of the sermon to the structure of the bumble bee Richard Hoefler says A good speech is like a bumble bee It possesses five basic parts each one playing a vital formation in the total process of the flight of the bumble bee a head a body a stinger legs and wings They enable both the bumble bee and the speech to get off the ground and into their work After thorough discussion of the structure of the sermon the author goes into detailed explanation of the use of the oral style of writing sermons The illustrations and examples will enable student or the seasoned pastor to dramatically improve his or her preaching effectiveness Richard Carl Hoefler Professor of Preaching and Worship and Dean of Chapel in the Lutheran Seminary Columbia South Carolina is a graduate of Wittenberg University and the Hamma School of Theology Springfield Ohio He received a Master s degree from Princeton University and a Doctor of Divinity degree from Roanoke College in Salem Virginia Previously Richard Carl Hoefler was pastor of St John s Lutheran Church Springfield Ohio as well as instructor in Wittenberg University and Sinclair College Dayton Ohio Dr Hoefler says that his greaest accomplishment comes when a student says to him You opened up the meaning of the gospel for me I had never heard it before      Creative Ministry Henri J. M. Nouwen, 1991-08-01 According to Henri Nouwen the bestselling spiritual writer every Christian is a minister trying to live his life in the light of the Gospel Creative Ministry is a thoughtful examination of the various complex tasks that are part of that way of life Separate chapters treat each of the five areas that Nouwen considers the primary responsibilities of the minister teaching preaching counseling organizing and celebrating He shows how these main functions are inextricably tied to the minister s spiritual life and why they must be directed toward a creative dialogue with other Christians if they are to be rewarding It is also essential he maintains that the minister leave himself open take risks and lay down his life for his friends in order to give new life There is today a great hunger for a new spirituality observes Nouwen a hunger that requires new and creative forms of ministry Citing numerous examples from his rich experience the author offers practical advice for infusing daily pastoral work with meaning The result is an insightful presentation and a resonant spiritual guide for every man and woman who wants to be of service      Creative Preaching Boston University.
