The Natural Creative Process in Writing Russell de la Porte, 2014-09-02 The Natural Creative Process in Writing a Core Writing and Editing Handbook for Everyone takes you through the process of writing any text including documents and books from start to finish The underlying natural creative process is the same for writing fiction novels novellas short stories plays poems film scripts and non fiction such as blogs essays letters emails theses dissertations reports proposals viability studies feasibility studies impact studies business plans cookery books memoirs autobiographies In this handbook experienced writer and copy editor

Russell de la Porte presents a detailed description of the psychology of the natural creative process. His observations synthesize the different states of mind that correspond with the stages of the natural creative process. These are linked to the appropriate brain modes that are activated during each stage and state. Managing yourself in the writing process as just one kind of natural creative process is easiest with an understanding of your natural mind state and brain mode disposition. Hence this writing handbook also deals with self management during the natural creative process as a vital aspect of starting and concluding your writing projects. A set of useful effective and stage appropriate writing tools makes this a comprehensive writing companion for everyone including academics, artists, businesspeople, students, parents, and writers at work and at play. Comprehensive addenda will aid those needing information on English language structuring conventions, grammar, and punctuation. If writing is a key part of your work and your life or if you create using words, this book will enhance your creativity, your work, and your writing and enrich your life.
