An Overview of the Changing Role of the Systems Librarian Edward Iglesias, 2010-09-09 This book presents a series of case studies from systems librarians all over the world It documents how the profession has changed in recent years with the introduction of new web technologies services such as hosted databases that are supported by vendors rather than in house as well as shifts in technology management New skill sets are constantly being added as systems librarians become much more versed in dealing with service providers outside the library as well as training and supporting their traditional constituencies Written by practitioners in the field who have real world experience Draws on a wide authorship to show how different perspectives can colour the perception of similar issues Provides real world scenarios where challenges in the field have been met and overcome

Achieving Cultural Change in Networked Libraries William Foster, 2017-03-02 The advent of globally networked information is a historic change Educational commercial and industrial institutions depend on its effective exploitation for their success but cultural and human factors are the biggest obstacles This book looks at the roots of these problems and how they may be overcome through understanding recent developments in technical services the difference between service and technical orientation organizational culture the role of subject expertise and the cultural heritage of the information profession The book provides guidance and outlines best practice in managing converging technologies supporting change with organizational models using cultural audits the role of focus groups in implementing change characterizing a learning organization succeeding as a change agent and managing change through technical services Several chapters discuss the Electronic Libraries programme and the TAPin Training and Awareness Programme in networks model as examples of how cultural change takes place particularly in the academic environment one chapter concentrates exclusively on the characteristics of special libraries This illuminating insight into the evolution of information cultures and how they do or don't adapt to networked services will help information and library managers to achieve change with deeper understanding and will provide useful advice for senior managers restructuring IT and information departments The book is core reading for students of Information Studies

Managing Cultural Change in Public Libraries John Pateman, Joe Pateman, 2018-11-09 Managing Cultural Change in Public Libraries argues that changes to library Strategies and Systems can lead to transformations in library Structures that can in turn shape and determine Organisational Culture Drawing on Management theories as well as the ideas of Marx and Maslow the authors present an ambitious Analytical Framework that can be used to better understand support and enable cultural change in public libraries The volume argues for radical but sustainable transformations in public libraries that require significant changes to Strategies Structures Systems and most importantly Organisational Culture These changes will enable Traditional Libraries to reach out beyond their current active patrons to engage with new customer groups and will also enable Traditional Libraries to evolve into Community Led Libraries and Community Led Libraries to become Needs Based Libraries Public libraries must be meaningful and relevant to the communities they serve For this to happen the authors argue all sections of the local community must be actively involved in the planning design delivery and evaluation of library services This book demonstrates how to make these changes happen acting as a blueprint and road map for organisational change and putting ideas into action through a series of case studies Managing Cultural Change in Public Libraries will be of particular interest to academics and advanced students engaged in the study of library and information science It should also be essential reading for practitioners and policymakers and all those who believe that communities should be involved and engaged in the planning design delivery and evaluation of library services
