Hewitt, 1992 This book concentrates on the concept and changing role of the state in influencing Third World development and on the wider ramifications of various forms of public action It examines the extent to which state action helps or hinders other forms of public action The book deals with the recent changes in the concept of the State and the implications for public action discussing the shift in mainstream theory from the public to private interest view of state action It then scrutinizes case study material selected to illustrate and reinforce the theoretical frameworks of the first section The case studies are mainly but not exclusively country based and consider pertinent topics Culture and Public Action Vijayendra Rao, Michael Walton, 2004 Led by Amartya Sen Mary Douglas and Arjun Appadurai the distinguished anthropologists and economists in this book forcefully argue that culture is central to development and present a framework for incorporating culture into development discourse For further information on the book and related essays please visit www.cultureandpublicaction.org

Territorial Division for Public Action Antoine Laporte, Antonine Ribardière, 2025-05-13 The reader may be amazed when they are faced with the sheer number of territorial divisions associated with public action and full of questions What justifies this diversity What are the problems that arise from these divisions Why don't the limits of public action simply follow administrative and political subdivisions Territorial Division for Public Action focuses on the situation in France proposing three different approaches First we consider the functions that are associated with these territorial divisions equitable distribution of resources across the territory administration and the management of public services However they are also a tool for maintaining power Lastly we consider the effects these divisions have on the implementation of public action and on socio spatial structures These divisions reflect political projects which embody the issues as much as the partition design itself does The recent reform of territorial regions alongside a gradual imposition of intercommunal links in France has given rise to political debates at both local and national levels National Development Policy and Urban Transformation in Singapore Yue-man Yeung, 1973 City of Watseka V.
