Transnational Migration-Development Nexus Mulugeta Bezabih Mekonnen, 2018 With a tenfold increase in remittance flows over the last 25 years the diaspora's role in the development efforts of the global South has gained broader interest Besides financial remittances flows of skills and social remittances have gained attention particularly the relevance of diaspora associations as drivers of development This book explores the engagement of Ethiopian diaspora associations in Germany for their home country's development It investigates the policies of the Ethiopian and Germany governments and the opportunities the policies generate for diaspora engagement efforts

Local Economic Development In The Developing World Etienne Louis Nel, Christian Myles Rogerson, Over the last two decades the concept and practice of Local Economic Development LED has gained widespread acceptance around the world as a locally based response to the challenges posed by globalization devolution local level opportunities and economic crises Support for local economic development is now firmly on the agenda of many national governments and key international agencies This volume examines the debates about Local Economic Development and examines some of the unfolding experiences of LED in the developing world The focus is upon the region of southern Africa and more especially upon post apartheid South Africa LED emerged in South Africa as one of the more significant post apartheid development options being pursued by empowered localities with the overt encouragement of national government Elsewhere in the developing world much interest surrounds the experience of LED in post apartheid South Africa which is seen as a laboratory for experimentation innovation and learning The seventeen chapters in this book examine the range of LED interventions that have been the basis for experimentation in the last decade including both pro market as well as pro poor interventions Key themes include debates about the most appropriate policy directions for LED its contribution towards sustainable development the role of social capital cluster support public procurement eco development good governance and tourism led LED The book also contains a series of detailed case studies on the implementation of LED in South Africa and the wider region of southern Africa including analyses of LED undertaken at a variety of scales from the provincial metropolitan and small town level Until now most research on local economic development has focused on the developed world This volume breaks new ground in applying LED policy and practices to problems specific to the developing world It will be of interest to scholars of development studies urban and regional planning human geography and urban studies This compelling and comprehensive book provides a look at the innovative including pro poor local economic development strategies being used in South Africa The contributors to Local Economic Development in the Changing World The Experience of Southern Africa are among the very best scholars in the field Gary Gaile University of Colorado Etienne Nel and Christian Rogerson have produced an excellent book on local economic development in South Africa The chapters in this timely volume contain many valuable lessons for both the developing and the developed world Of particular importance is the policy focus of Nel and Rogerson on investing in and empowering low income workers entrepreneurs families and neighborhoods Because of the special emphasis on inclusive economic development strategies this book is a very useful guide to what the Prague Institute calls Treating People and Communities as Assets Dr Marc A Weiss Chairman and CEO Prague Institute for Global Urban Development Etienne Nel is associate professor in the Department of Geography of Rhodes University Grahamstown South Africa Christian M Rogerson is professor of human geography School of Geography Archaeology and Environmental Studies University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg

Decolonial Narratives in Economics Altuğ Yalçıntaş, Arne Heise, 2025-01-09 What narratives are underrepresented in the history of economic thought How do economists account for freedom justice and democracy in non Western cultures How are ideas in non English speaking countries disseminated This book answers these critical questions with contributions by authors from underrepresented backgrounds within economics International conference proceedings enhancing citizens' participation in policy making processes in East Asia: comparative analyses, 2018 Living Terraces in Ethiopia Elizabeth E. Watson, 2009 Living Terraces is both an ethnographic and historical account of the terraces of Konso in southern Ethiopia Terraced agricultural landscapes in Africa are remarkable feats of human engineering and social organization enabling the conservation of soil and water and the cultivation of food Indigenous terraced landscapes are all the more valuable because they have been produced by the people themselves and maintained for several hundred years evidencing a valuable degree of sustainability Yet until this book there have been few accounts of how such landscapes in Africa are produced and maintained over time Taking a period of approximately a hundred years Living Terraces is both an ethnography and history of the terraces of Konso in southern Ethiopia It traces the way Konso agriculture and landscape has been produced and managed in close relationship with broader changes in Konso political and cultural lives In shedding new light on the relationships between landscapes livelihoods culture and development the book demonstrates the embeddedness of social institutions in areas of social cultural religious and political life showing that social institutions cannot easily be abstracted replicated or used instrumentally for development purposes The result is a call for an approach to social institutions so vital to development which centralizes a study of culture history and power in the analysis ELIZABETH E WATSON is a Lecturer in the Department of Geography University of Cambridge

Bibliographic Index, 2006 Forest Futures Antje Linkenbach, 2007 Under their slogan Ecology is permanent economy the Chipko Movement drew world attention to the struggle over forest rights Taking its name from the Hindi word for embrace villagers hugged trees and prevented contractors from felling them Dedicated to the protection of forests the movement spread throughout India in the 1970s changing the country's natural resource policy Forest Futures argues that the hype took Chipko from its locale and took control away from local people The portrayal of the Chipko movement largely ignored local histories of resistance local conflicts and local forest practices The
