Dialectic Of Freedom:

The Dialectic of Freedom Maxine Greene, 1988 Special 2018 Edition From the new Introduction by Michelle Fine Graduate Center CUNY Why now you may ask should I return to a book written in 1988 Because in Maxine's words When freedom is the question it is always time to begin In The Dialectic of Freedom Maxine Greene argues that freedom must be achieved through continuing resistance to the forces that limit condition determine and too frequently oppress Examining the interrelationship between freedom possibility and imagination in American education Greene taps the fields of philosophy history educational theory and literature in order to discuss the many struggles that have characterized Americans' quests for freedom in the midst of what is conceived to be a free society Accounts of the lives of women immigrants and minority groups highlight the ways in which Americans have gone in search of openings in their lived situations learned to look at things as if they could be otherwise and taken action on what they found Greene presents a unique overview of American concepts and images of freedom from Jefferson's time to the present She examines the ways in which the disenfranchised have historically understood and acted on their freedom or lack of it in dealing with perceived and real obstacles to expression and empowerment Strong emphasis is placed on the focal role of the arts and art experience in releasing human imagination and enabling the young to reach toward their vision of the possible The author concludes with suggestions for approaches to teaching and learning that can provoke both educators and students to take initiatives to transcend limits and to pursue freedom not in solitude but in reciprocity with others not in privacy but in a public space

The Dialectics of Freedom
Maxine Greene, The Metaphysics of Freedom Gregory Lynn Curl, 1971 The Dialectics of Freedom in a Market Society Robert Edwards Lane, 1979 Dialectic Roy Bhaskar, 2008-07-02 Dialectic The Pulse of Freedom is now widely regarded as a classic of contemporary philosophy This book first published in 1993 sets itself three main aims the development of a general theory of dialectic of which Hegelian dialectic can be seen to be a special case the dialectical enrichment and deepening of critical realism viz into the system of dialectical critical realism and the outline of the elements of a totalizing critique of Western philosophy The first chapter clarifies the rational core of Hegelian dialectic Chapter 2 then proceeds to develop a general theory of dialectic Isolating the fallacy of ontological monovalence i.e. a purely positive account of being Roy Bhaskar then shows how absence and other negating concepts such as contradiction have a legitimate and necessary ontological employment He then goes on to give a synoptic account of key dialectical concepts such as the concrete universal to sketch the further dialectical development of critical naturalism through an account of what he calls four planar social being and following consideration of the dialectical critique of analytical reason he moves on to the real definition of dialectic as absencing absence and in the human sphere the axiology of freedom Chapter 3 extends and deepens critical realism's characteristic concerns with ontology science social science and emancipation not only into the realms of negativity and totality but also into the fields of reference and truth spatio temporality tense and process the logic of dialectical universalizability and on to the plane of ethics where it articulates a combination of moral realism and ethical naturalism whereby consideration of elemental desire involves commitment to the eudaimonistic society This is then followed in Chapter 4 by a sublime discussion of key moments in the trajectory of Western philosophy the tradition of which can now be seen to be based on what the author calls the unholy trinity of the epistemic fallacy or the reduction of being to knowledge primal squeeze or the collapse of structure and alethic truth and ontological monovalence

The Basis of Freedom Edmund Morris Miller,1924 The Dialectics of Global Justice Bryant William Sculos,2022-07-01 The Dialectics of Global Justice uses a novel application of negative dialectical interpretation to offer an immanent and ethical critique of prominent theories of global justice i e cosmopolitanism including how these theories manifest in political movements and policy agendas Drawing on the work of Theodor Adorno and Erich Fromm especially author Bryant William Sculos exposes the contradictory relationship between cosmopolitanism and core elements of capitalism particularly the domineering capitalistic mentality re produced by and through capitalism leading to the conclusion that cosmopolitanism on its own terms demands an alternative postcapitalistic political basis in order to make robust progress toward global justice While offering this critique Sculos also implicitly challenges the increasingly common view that cosmopolitanism today is inherently imperialistic and out of touch with the global resurgence of nationalism and anti cosmopolitan sentiment

Freedom and History and Other Essays Richard P. McKeon,1990 This volume of essays is an important introduction to the thought of one of the twentieth century s most significant yet underappreciated philosophers Richard McKeon The originator of philosophical pluralism McKeon made extraordinary contributions to philosophy to international relations and to theory formation in the communication arts aesthetics the organization of knowledge and the practical sciences This collection which includes a philosophical autobiography as well as the out of print title essay Freedom and History and a previously unpublished essay on Philosophic Semantics and Philosophic Inquiry is a testimony to the range and systematic power of McKeon s thinking for the social sciences and the humanities

Existence and the World of Freedom John Wild,1963 The Freedom of Authority James Macbride Sterrett,1905 An Existentialist Curriculum of Action Shaireen Rasheed,2007 This book contextualizes Maxine Greene s educational pedagogy within an existentialist tradition By drawing on the works of Jean Paul Sartre Paulo Freire and Merleau Ponty Professor Rasheed analyzes how Greene s work represents an advance in existentialist discourse via her interpretation of concepts such as choice freedom and possibility within an educational setting The aim of this work is to create an existentialist curriculum of action that is grounded in a vision of leadership Educators teachers students policy makers and curriculum theorists can implement this critique as part of an emancipatory and transformative pedagogy By developing an ethical language of existential possibility Professor Rasheed creates a space where discourse explores the various intersections of gender race class ethnicity religion and sexual orientation which coexist within a participatory definition of democracy

The Experience of Freedom

Jean-Luc Nancy, 1993 The most systematic radical and lucid treatise on freedom that has been written in contemporary Continental philosophy this book combats the renunciation of freedom attested in modern history by articulating the experience of freedom at work in thought itself

Explicating Maxine Greene's Notion of Naming and Becoming: "I Am ... Not Yet" Christine Debelak Neider, 2021-09-06 This volume offers a Naming praxis with which teachers might more closely align with their ethical ideals in the midst of their daily practice and relationships with students Framed ontologically in Maxine Greene's existential phenomenological notion of Becoming the author explicates Greene's Naming as a praxis within her own early teaching experiences through the interpretive methods of currere and teacher lore This study evolves in epistolary conversation with Maxine Greene teacher colleagues and new teachers It demonstrates the possibilities of applying critical reflective and discursive dialogue to the tensions of a teacher's life of practice in order to identify the obstacles to and the opportunities of the Becoming of the teacher and the student's in the educational encounter

Freedom and the Spirit Nikolai Berdyaev, 1972 Freedom and Purpose Flora Isabel MacKinnon, James Henry Dunham, William Davis Furry, 1916 Dialectics and Humanism, 1978 Freedom and Tolerance Mieczysław Maneli, 1984 Varieties of Christian-Marxist Dialogue Paul Mojzes, 1978
