Five hundred years ago the church of Jesus Christ underwent a Reformation A lot happened after Martin Luther posted his 95 theses on the castle church door in Wittenberg But the fallout was not simply the start of Protestantism The Roman Catholic Church also recast itself in response to Luther s call for reforms And contrary to common belief Martin Luther did not set out to start a new church Rather he was trying to reform the church that already existed by reemphasizing its essence namely the good news the gospel that Jesus forgives and saves sinners The unity of the church was broken when the pope rejected this call for reform and excommunicated Luther starting a chain of events that did lead to the institutional fracturing of Christendom and to a plethora of alternative Christian theologies But as many including conservative Catholics now admit the church did in fact need reforming Today the church including its Protestant branches also needs reforming Some of the issues in contemporary Christianity are very similar to those in the late Middle Ages though others are new But if Luther s theology can be blamed however unfairly for fragmenting Christianity perhaps today it can help us recover the wholeness of Christianity The religious climate in the early 21st century is simultaneously highly religious and highly secularized It is a time of extraordinary spiritual and theological diversity In the spirit of the anniversary we are observing this book will propose the kind of Christianity that is best suited for our day The remedies offered here are available by way of the same theology that was the catalyst for reforming the church five hundred years ago

A Marxist Mosaic Jairus Banaji,2024-07-01 Historical materialism as Marx understood this was always an integrated conception or field of research not one divided into separate disciplines The essays gathered in this volume are a remarkable example of how this works across a wide range of subjects as diverse as agrarian history capitalism Hegel s influence on Marx and class struggles in India They were written over some fifty years of both activism and academic work embodying Banaji s lifelong engagement with Marxist theory His recent papers on merchant capitalism can also be found here along with a biographical sketch that sets all of his work in context

Theology and the Dialectics of History Robert M. Doran,1990 In this challenging work Robert M Doran explores the basis of systematic theology in consciousness and goes on to consider the practical role of such theology in establishing and fostering communities with an authentic way of life This way of life would counteract the distortions and deformations of humanity that are exemplified by both late capitalism and Marxism Amazon com
